Time, Consumption and the Coordination of Everyday Life Dale Southerton, 2020-08-17 Time pressure speed and the desire for instant consumption pervade accounts of contemporary lives Why is it that people feel pressed for time in what ways have societies changed to create this condition and with what implications This book examines critical contentions in the field of time and society ranging from the emergence and dominance of clock time and time discipline the time pressures associated with consumer culture through to technological innovation and the acceleration of everyday lives Through extensive analysis of empirical studies of the changing ways in which people organise and experience home work leisure consumption and personal relationships time pressure is shown to be a problem of the coordination and synchronization of activities Appreciation of temporal rhythms formed and reproduced through the organisation and performance of social practices is necessary to tackle the challenges of coordination and offers new avenues for analysing social issues such as sustainable consumption health and well being This book is essential reading for all of those interested in social change consumption and time including researchers and students from across the social sciences

Words on Words David Crystal, Hilary Crystal, 2000-10-15 From Homer winged words to Robert Burns Beware a tongue that s smoothly hung to Rudyard Kipling Words are of course the most powerful drug used by mankind writers from all over the world have put pen to paper on the inexhaustible topic of language Yet surprisingly their writings on the subject have never been gathered in a single volume In Words on Words David and Hilary Crystal have collected nearly 5 000 quotations about language and all its intriguing aspects speaking reading writing translation verbosity usage slang and more As the stock in trade of so many professions orators media personalities writers and countless others language s appeal as a subject is extraordinarily relevant and wide ranging The quotations are grouped thematically under 65 different headings from The Nature of Language through the Language of Politics to Quoting and Misquoting This arrangement enables the reader to explore a topic through a variety of lenses ancient and modern domestic and foreign scientific and casual ironic and playful Three thorough indexes to authors sources and key words provide different entry points into the collection A valuable resource for professional writers and scholars Words on Words is for anyone who loves language and all things linguistic

"A" New English Dictionary on Historical Principles ,1928 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, 1928 Young Adult Drinking Styles Dominic Conroy, Fiona Measham, 2019-11-30 This book brings together cutting edge contemporary research and discussion concerning drinking practices among young adults individuals aged approximately 18 30 years old Its chapters showcase an interdisciplinary range of perspectives from psychology sociology criminology geography public health and social policy The contributors address themes including how identity becomes involved in young adult drinking practices issues relating to the non consumption of alcohol within friendship groups and the role of social context religious and ethnic orientation gender identity and social media use In doing so they highlight changing trends in alcohol consumption among young people which have seen notably fewer young adults consuming alcohol over the last two decades In acknowledging the complex nature of drinking styles among young adults the contributors to this collection eschew traditional understandings of young adult drinking which can pathologise and generalise They advocate instead for an inclusive approach as demonstrated in the wide range of disciplinary backgrounds cultural perspectives methods and international settings represented in this book in order to better understand the economic socio cultural and pharmacological crossroads at which we now stand This book will appeal in particular to researchers theorists practitioners and policy makers working in the alcohol and drugs field public health and health psychology in addition to students and researchers from across the social sciences
