A Rhetoric Of Argument Brief Edition:

A Rhetoric of Argument Jeanne Fahnestock, Marie Secor, 2003-08 The stasis approach pioneered by Fahnestock and Secor distinguishes among four basic questions that arguments are written to answer What is it Definition arguments How did it get that way Causal arguments Is it good or bad Evaluation arguments What should we do about it Proposal arguments These four questions now standard in many argument texts give students a constructive engaging way to analyze arguments by other writers and to construct their own arguments

The Pin Drop Principle David Lewis, G. Riley Mills, 2012-05-01 Tap into the powerful techniques of professional actors and great communicators The Pin Drop Principle is a step by step master class for anyone wishing to become a more confident and credible communicator Lewis and Mills believe all business professionals ought to deliver their message in such an engaging way that one could literally hear a pin drop when they speak The secret to doing so comes from an unusual world professional acting By activating objective and intention the main tools of actors and great communicators business people can give their messages meaning and relevance so the recipients walk away knowing why the message is important and what is in it for them Empowers business professionals with performance based delivery techniques from storytelling to vocal dynamics essential to becoming a great communicator Written for anyone wishing to engage listeners establish instant credibility influence key decision makers and create a positive lasting impression Based on the Pinnacle Method one of the most popular and groundbreaking communication skills training methods The Pin Drop Principle is an accessible resource for anyone who routinely needs to present ideas to large or small groups convey feedback effectively conduct difficult conversations and persuade others

A Rhetoric of Argument Jeanne Fahnestock, Marie Secor, 2004 When it was first published in 1982 A Rhetoric of Argument developed a groundbreaking new approach to teaching argument The stasis approach pioneered by Fahnestock and Secor distinguished among the four basic questions that arguments are written to answer What is it Definition arguments How did it get that way Causal arguments Is it good or bad Evaluation arguments What should we do about it Proposal arguments These four questions now standard in many argument texts give students a constructive engaging way to analyze readings by other writers and to construct their own arguments

Argumentation in Higher Education Richard Andrews, 2009-09-10 Argumentation in Higher Education offers professors lecturers and researchers informative guidance for teaching effective argumentation skills to their undergraduate and graduate students This professional guide aims to make the complex topic of argumentation open and transparent Grounded in empirical research and theory but with student voices heard strongly throughout this book fills the gap of argumentation instruction for the undergraduate and graduate level Written to enlighten even the most experienced professor this text contributes to a better understanding of the demands of speaking writing and visual argumentation in higher education and will undoubtedly inform and enhance course design The book argues for a more explicit treatment of argument the product and argumentation the process in higher education so that the ground rules of the
