Dr. Oscar Harris

Bridging The Gap Bridging The Gap:

Bridging the Gaps Thomas Quartier, 2007 Funeral rites help people to cope with their loss and express their religious needs Even in a secularised society such as that in the Netherlands large groups of people still fall back on ecclesiastic rites when a loved one dies But how does one explain that there are more people participating in church funerals than people who assign religion a focal place in their lives How do present day funeral goers regard the rites in which they participate Does the rite actually help them to bridge the gaps left by the deceased This study considers such questions from the angle of ritual and liturgical studies by way of empirical research into perceptions of present day church funerals in the Netherlands

Bridging the Gap Between Policy and Science in Assessing the Health Status of Marine Ecosystems, 2nd Edition Angel Borja, Michael Elliott, María C. Uyarra, Jacob Carstensen, Marianna Mea, 2017-03-22 Marine management requires approaches which bring together the best research from the natural and social sciences It requires stakeholders to be well informed by science and to work across administrative and geographical boundaries a feature especially important in the inter connected marine environment Marine management must ensure that the natural structure and functioning of ecosystems is maintained to provide ecosystem services Once those marine ecosystem services have been created they deliver societal goods as long as society inputs its skills time money and energy to gather those benefits However if societal goods and benefits are to be limitless society requires appropriate administrative legal and management mechanisms to ensure that the use of such benefits do not impact on environmental quality but instead support its sustainable use Manus AI Bridging the gap between AI innovation and real-world applications
