The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach,2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid s end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought
