Education And Learning Cosmina L Voinea, Nadine Roijakkers, 2022-12-20 The book represents an accessible and comprehensive point of reference for both the academic and the practitioner world in showing how education can be transformed and innovated to become more sustainable and resilient The recent covid crisis shows that the education system and approaches used are not sustainable but can be ambushed and reactive How can we in the present determine what we should learn to be prepared for the future How can education be changed so that we learn more quickly and more effectively Not only focusing on new methods technologies but also on innovation of the learning process How to use the experience to create future proof education and how certain innovations in education play a role in this transition These are some of the questions answered in the book It represents an overview of the state of affairs of innovative techniques used in education from both distance and face to face education The topic of innovation is highly relevant for both the business world and a challenging and complex subject for the education industry This is a unique book that offers new empirical insights for practitioners and policy makers of the field Our approach in designing this book was a critical reflection of field expertise and scholarly experience tailored to the knowledge needs dictated by the novelty and complexity of the topic

Knowing Bodies, Moving Minds Liora Bresler, 2013-11-11 This book aims to define new theoretical practical and methodological directions in educational research centered on the role of the body in teaching and learning Based on our phenomenological experience of the world it draws on perspectives from arts education and aesthetics as well as curriculum theory cultural anthropology and ethnomusicology These are arenas with a rich untapped cache of experience and inquiry that can be applied to the notions of schooling teaching and learning The book provides examples of state of the art empirical research on the body in a variety of educational settings Diverse art forms curricular settings educational levels and cultural traditions are selected to demonstrate the complexity and richness of embodied knowledge as they are manifested through institutional structures disciplines and specific practices

The Advertising and Consumer Culture Reader Joseph Turow, Matthew P. McAllister, 2009 Commercial breaks radio spots product placements billboards pop up ads we sometimes take for granted how much advertising surrounds us in our daily lives We may find ads funny odd or even disturbing but we rarely stop to consider their deeper meaning or function within society What exactly does advertising do How and why do ads influence us How does the advertising industry influence our media These are just a few of the many important questions addressed in The Advertising and Consumer Culture Reader an incisive provocative collection that assembles twenty seven of the most important scholarly writings on advertising and consumer culture to date The classic and contemporary essays gathered here explore the past present and future of advertising from the early days of print to the World Wide Web and beyond These selections offer historical sociological critical cultural and political economic lenses to explore a wide range of topics from consumer activism to globalization to the role of ads in the political process Together these key readings chart the past present and future of advertising while also examining the effects of advertising and consumer culture upon individuals society cultures and the world at large Designed for use in courses the collection begins with a general introduction that orients students to thinking critically about advertising and consumer culture Section and chapter introductions offer valuable historical and critical context while review questions after each reading will spark classroom debates and challenge students understanding of key concepts

Artforum International, 1991 Undressing the Ad Katherine Toland Frith, 1997 Undressing the Ad aims to empower readers to become media literate through the work of deconstructing the consumer culture that surrounds them By introducing critical scholarship on advertising in a way that is accessible the book attempts to show how issues of race class and gender are expressed in contemporary advertising The readings in this book take a decidedly critical political perspective and explore how representation in advertising upholds certain economic and political structures and subverts others and exposes the myth that advertisements are merely messages aimed at selling goods and services Rather they are texts that shape contemporary culture and shape our images of ourselves When Ads Work John Philip Jones, 2007 The accepted wisdom in advertising is that ad campaigns are good for building brand recognition and good will but not for immediate sales impact When Ads Work argues the opposite that well planned and well executed advertising campaigns can and should have an immediate impact on sales Featuring numerous examples from recent ad campaigns the new edition of this popular book is a model for any successful advertising research program With a device he calls STAS Short Term Advertising Strength a measure of the immediate effect of advertising on sales the author demonstrates th
