Buddha His Life In Images:

The Buddha Image Yuvraj Krishan, 1996 Illustrations 247 b w illustrations Description This book deals with crucial though controversial questions in Buddhist art the origin of the Buddha image and the iconography of the Buddha images The earliest Buddhist art of Sanchi and Bharhut is aniconic The Buddha is represented in symbols only In the later Buddhist art of Gandhara and Mathura the Buddha is represented in human form he is the principal subject of sculptural art The book seeks to explore the geographical area in which the image of the Buddha first emerged and whether the Buddhist doctrines Hinayana or Mahayana had anything to do with this transformation The Buddha image as developed eventually at Sarnath became the model for the Buddha images in whole of Asia south east central and eastern Asia The iconographic features of the Buddha image are superficially an aberration being in apparent conflict with the doctrine The Buddha had cut off his hair at the time of his renunciation the rules of the order enjoin that a monk must be tonsured and must discard and eschew all riches However in his images the Buddha has hair on his head later he is also endowed with a crown and jewels After an exhaustive examination of the views of various scholars the book answers these questions and resolves the controversies on the basis of literary numismatic and epigraphic sources More importantly it makes use of the valuable evidence from the contemporaneous Jaina art Aniconism of early Jaina art and the iconographic features of Jaina images The implications of this study are also important Does India owe idolatry to Buddhism Was this of foreign inspiration Was the Buddha image fashioned after the Vedic Brahma and whether the Buddha's usnisa and Buddhist art motifs are rooted in the Vedic tradition The book is profusely illustrated and provides rich and stimulating fare to students of Indian art in general and of Buddhist art in particular

Buddha Michael Jordan, 2005 Buddha: His Life, His Teachings, His Order Manmatha Nath Dutt, 1901 Becoming the Buddha Donald K. Swearer, 2020-07-21 Becoming the Buddha is the first book length study of a key ritual of Buddhist practice in Asia the consecration of a Buddha image or new Buddha a ceremony by which the Buddha becomes present or alive Through a richly detailed accessible exploration of this ritual in northern Thailand an exploration that stands apart from standard text based or anthropological approaches Donald Swearer makes a major contribution to our understanding of the Buddha image its role in Buddhist devotional life and its relationship to the veneration of Buddha relics Blending ethnography analysis and Buddhist texts related to this mimetic reenactment of the night of the Buddha's enlightenment he demonstrates that the image becomes the Buddha's surrogate by being invested with the Buddha's story and charged with the extraordinary power of Buddhahood The process by which this transformation occurs through chant sermon meditation and the presence of charismatic monks is at the heart of this book Known as opening the eyes of the Buddha image consecration traditions throughout Buddhist Asia share much in common Within the cultural context of northern Thailand Becoming the Buddha illuminates scriptural accounts of the making of the first Buddha image looks at debates over the ritual's historical origin at Buddhological insights achieved and at the hermeneutics of absence and presence and provides a thematic comparison of several Buddhist traditions Pilgrims, Patrons, and Place Phyllis Granoff, Koichi Shinohara, 2011-11-01 UBC Press is pleased to announce a new series in Asian religions Pilgrims Patrons and Place a Buddha Dharma Kyokai Foundation Book on Buddhism and Comparative Literature is the first book in this series Click here to see other titles in this series This book brings together essays by anthropologists scholars of religion and art historians on the subject of sacred place and sacred biography in Asia The chapters span a broad geographical area that includes India Nepal Thailand Indonesia and China and explore issues from the classical and medieval period to the present They show how sacred places have a plurality of meanings for all religious communities and how in their construction secular politics private religious experience and sectarian rivalry can all intersect The contributors explore some of the most fundamental challenges that religious groups face as they expand from their homeland or confront the demands of modernity In every case the biography of a saint or founding figure proves to be central to the formation of religious identity Sacred place becomes a means of concretizing the ever expanding sphere of the saint's influence While some chapters deal with well known religious movements and sites others discuss little known groups and help to enrich our understanding of the diversity of religious belief in Asia The book will be of interest not only to scholars of Asian religion and hagiography but to others who seek to understand the ways in which religious groups accommodate to the challenges of new environments and new times

Korean Culture, 1982 The Dragon, Image, and Demon Hampden C. DuBose, 1886 The Dragon, Image, and Demon Or The Three Religions of China, Confucianism, Buddhism and Taoism Hampden C. DuBose, 1887 If You Meet the Buddha on the Road Michael K. Jerryson, 2018 Drawing on Buddhist treatments of violence this book explores Buddhist invocation support or justification of war conflict state violence and gender discrimination In addition it examines the ways in which Buddhists address violence as military chaplains cope with violence in a conflict zone and serve as witnesses of blasphemy to Buddhism A History of the World in 100 Objects Neil MacGregor, 2011-10-06 This book takes a dramatically original approach to the history of humanity using objects which previous civilisations have left behind them often accidentally as prisms through which we can explore past worlds and the lives of the men and women who lived in them The book's range is enormous It begins with one of the earliest surviving objects made by human hands a chopping tool from the Olduvai gorge in Africa and ends with an object from the 21st century which represents the world we live in today Neil MacGregor's aim is not simply to describe these remarkable things but to show us their significance how a stone pillar tells us about a great Indian emperor preaching tolerance to his people how Spanish pieces of eight tell us about the beginning of a global currency or how an early Victorian tea set tells us about the impact of empire Each chapter immerses the reader in a past civilisation accompanied by an exceptionally well informed guide Seen through this lens history is a kaleidoscope shifting interconnected constantly surprising and shaping our world today in ways that most of us have never imagined An intellectual and visual feast it is one of the most engrossing and unusual history books published in years
