Building Feminist Movements And Organizations Global Perspectives:

Building Feminist Movements and Organizations Lydia Alpízar Durán,Noël D. Payne,Anahi Russo,2008-02-29 The struggle for the advancement of women s rights and gender equality globally is impossible without strong women s organizations and movements to provide leadership and momentum But what does a strong women s organization look like And what does it take to create effective and sustainable women s movements This groundbreaking collection of essays by activists from all corners of the globe explores what it means to be an influential women s organization and what it takes to build the kinds of movements needed to transform women s lives From how to build successful participatory democratic processes and implement shared leadership models to lessons on overcoming internal organizational divisions the case studies in this collection focus not only on the what but also the how of movement building Those concerned with how to effect sustainable change will find not only much food for thought but also an abundance of creative ideas and innovative strategies served up with a uniquely feminist twist

Intersectionality and Social Change Lynne M. Woehrle,2014-09-17 Volume 37 asks what can the emerging discipline of intersectionality studies contribute to our quest to understand and analyze social movements conflict and change Through the intersectional lens questions often ignored and populations traditionally marginalized become the heart of the analysis

From Cape Town to Kabul Penelope Andrews,2016-04-15 Using her experience of living under apartheid and witnessing its downfall and the subsequent creation of new governments in South Africa the author examines and compares gender inequality in societies undergoing political and economic transformation By applying this process of legal transformation as a paradigm the author applies this model to Afghanistan These two societies serve as counterpoints through which the book engages in a nuanced and novel way with the many broader issues that flow from the attempts in newly democratic societies to give effect to the promise of gender equality Developing the idea of conditional interdependence the book suggests a new approach based on the communitarian values which underpin newly democratic societies and would allow women s rights to gain momentum and reap greater benefits Broad in its thematic approach the book generates challenging and complex questions about the achievement of gender equality It will be of interest to academics interested in gender and human rights international and comparative law

Gender Training Lucy Ferguson, 2018-06-05 This book develops a case for feminist gender training as a catalyst for disjuncture rupture and change Chapter 1 traces the historical development and current contours of the field of gender training In Chapter 2 the key critiques of gender training are substantively engaged with from the perspective of reflexive practice highlighting the need to work strategically within existing constraints Questions of transformative change are addressed in Chapter 3 which reviews feminist approaches to change and how these can be applied to enhance the impact of gender training Chapter 4 considers the theory and practice of feminist pedagogies in gender training In the final chapter new avenues for gender training are explored working with privilege engaging with applied theatre and mindfulness meditation The study takes gender training beyond its often technocratic form towards a creative liberating process with the potential to evoke tangible lasting transformation for gender equality

Turkey and the Politics of National Identity Shane Brennan, Marc Herzog, 2014-09-19 In the first decade of the twenty first century Turkey experienced an extraordinary set of transformations In 2001 in the midst of financial difficulties the country was under IMF stewardship yet it has recently emerged as one of the fastest growing economies in the world And on the international stage Turkey has managed to enhance its position from being a backseat NATO member and outside candidate for EU membership to being an influential regional power determining and developing its own individual foreign policy Shane Brennan and Marc Herzog explore how these and other changes have shaped the way people in Turkey perceive themselves and how the country's self image shapes its actions In the modern age the sovereign nation state still continues to be one of the basic building blocks of social or political identity The Turkish Republic founded in 1923 is a good example In weaving together and selecting certain elements of memory myth tradition and symbols the narratives of national identity in Turkey have been to a large extent socially constructed This volume offers analysis of the ways in which these narratives have been created maintained and negotiated and how current economic and political interests have been incorporated into the construction of a modern identity External forces such as those of cultural and economic globalisation have also been influential agents in this process As a result the space and opportunity for social and cultural expression has increasingly widened while alternative identities and life style choices at both the collective and individual levels have also become more visible Bearing this in mind this book examines issues such as those of alternative gender identity and sexual orientation formerly taboo issues Through different approaches engaging with politics economy society culture and history Turkey and the Politics of National Identity offers new perspectives on the transformation of national identity in this increasingly influential country in the Middle East

Discrimination and Diversity: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2017-05-17 The growing presence of discrimination and isolation has caused negative changes to human interactions With the ubiquity of these practices there is now an increasingly urgent need to close this divide Discrimination and Diversity Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications provides a critical look at race gender and modern day discrimination and solutions to creating sustainable diversity across numerous contexts and fields Including innovative studies on anti discrimination measures gender discrimination and tolerance this multi volume book is an ideal source for professionals practitioners graduate students academics and researchers working in equality as well as managers and those in leadership roles

Feminist Strategies in International Governance Gülay Çağlar, Elisabeth Prügl, Susanne Zwingel, 2013 The struggle for women's rights and to overcome gender oppression has long engaged the efforts of inter governmental and non governmental organizations Feminist Strategies in International Governance provides a new introduction to the contemporary forms of this struggle It brings together the voices of academics and practitioners to reflect in particular on the effectiveness of human rights strategies and gender mainstreaming It covers three international issue areas in which feminists currently seek change women's human rights and violence against women the participation of women in peace making and their protection during conflict and the gendered effects of development economic and financial governance The book combines a critical reflection on the current state of feminist politics with an introduction to urgent issues on the contemporary international agenda In addition the book draws on innovative conceptualizations from constructivism in international relations legal anthropology and discourse theory to provide new framings of current feminist struggles Offering an accessible guide to the engendering of international governance and examining the challenges for international feminist politics in the future this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international organizations gender politics and global governance

Cases on Grassroots Campaigns for Community Empowerment and Social Change Lekoko, Rebecca Nthogo, 2015-04-30 In modern times political and social reform often starts at the bottom of the socioeconomic ladder common people with ordinary lives enact change through community organization and the desire to improve their own lives and the lives of those around them Governments that support such movements can experience great advances and achievements in the long term Cases on Grassroots Campaigns for Community Empowerment and Social Change presents a series of real world studies on political and social activism in the information age focusing on how empowerment of minority or underserved populations can serve to enact sweeping reforms regionally nationally or globally This book is a critical resource for political and private actors including government agencies community organizers political parties and researchers in the social sciences This reference work features research on timely topics such as women's empowerment poverty social activism and social change community building and empowerment of individuals in a variety of socioeconomic settings and roles
