Barcelona Catalonia A View From The Inside:

Barcelona, Catalonia Matthew Tree, 2011 A collection of columns published in Catalonia today and articles published in other publications

Memory and Securitization in Contemporary Europe Vlad Strukov, Victor Apryshchenko, 2018-01-24 The volume is the first study to explore the intersection of memory and securitisation in the European context By analysing a variety of practices ranging from film to art and new media the book expands the existing theoretical framework of securitisation The authors consider memory as a precondition for contemporary integration projects such as the European Union and also showcase how memory is used to stage international conflicts Following this memory securitisation nexus the European Union and Europe more generally emerges as an on going cultural political and social project The book also examines developments outside the EU such as the conflict in Ukraine and the creation of the Eurasian Economic Union which the authors argues have a profound impact on Europe From a consideration of historical contexts such as national referenda the discussion proceeds to media and film analysis artistic practice and more transient phenomena such as climate change

Nourishing the Nation Venetia Johannes, 2019-11-04 In the early twenty first century nationalism has seen a surprising resurgence across the Western world In the Catalan Autonomous Community in northeastern Spain this resurgence has been most apparent in widespread support for Catalonia s pro independence movement and the popular assertion of Catalan symbols culture and identity in everyday life Nourishing the Nation provides an ethnographic account of the everyday experience of national identity in Catalonia using an essential everyday object of consumption food As a crucial element of Catalan cultural life a focus on food provides unique insight into the lived realities of Catalan nationalism and how Catalans experience and express their national identity today
