renders them largely voiceless Australia s Aboriginal people have used the written word as a powerful tool for over two hundred years Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature presents a rich panorama of Aboriginal culture history and life through the writings of some of the great Australian Aboriginal authors From Bennelong s 1796 letter to contemporary writing Anita Heiss and Peter Minter have selected works that represent the range and depth of Aboriginal writing in English Journalism petitions and political letters from both the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are brought together with major works of poetry prose and drama from the mid twentieth century onward These works voice not only the ongoing suffering of dispossession but the resilience of Australia s Aboriginal people their hope and joy Presenting some of the best most distinctive writing produced in Australia this groundbreaking anthology will captivate anyone interested in Aboriginal writing and culture

Boomerang Philip Jones,1996 Describes the traditional making and uses of the boomerang Provides information about topics such as boomerangs in fighting fishing rituals and trade decorating boomerangs and the differences in appearance and usage across Australia Includes a bibliography The author has published widely on Aboriginal history and art

The Art of Attack and the Development of Weapons H. S. Cowper,2012-03-30 This most unusual book is subtitled Being a Study in the Development of weapons and Appliances of Offence from the Earliest Times to the Age of Gunpowder It surveys in considerable detail and with numerous drawings and illustrations the art and means of aggression developed by man beginning with the bare hand or fist and then the fist reinforced by such appliances as the cestus of Roman times and the knuckleduster of the more enlightened age From here it moves on to simple unshafted hand held weapons designed for bruising and ripping clubs stones etc The next stage is reinforcing the arm the development of hafted weapons and attachment of weapon heads to shafts the axe and adze type and the ball and thong such as the bola These are categorized as striking weapons Then come the pointed weapons flint and metal daggers spears tridents and the like So we are taken on a stage by stage journey through the whole range of weaponry grappling hooks cutting weapons throwing spears javelins harpoons catapults blowpipes and the means of throwing or discharging them The sheer variety of means of dealing aggressively with your opponent when they are spelled out in detail is remarkable and there are many odd looking weapons illustrated In the detailed study and analysis of its subject this book can have no rival
