Social Appearances Barbara Carnevali, 2020-08-04 Philosophers have long distinguished between appearance and reality and the opposition between a supposedly deceptive surface and a more profound truth is deeply rooted in Western culture At a time of obsession with self representation when politics is enmeshed with spectacle and social and economic forces are intensely aestheticized philosophy remains moored in traditional dichotomies being versus appearing interiority versus exteriority authenticity versus alienation Might there be more to appearance than meets the eye In this strikingly original book Barbara Carnevali offers a philosophical examination of the roles that appearances play in social life While Western metaphysics and morals have predominantly disdained appearances and expelled them from their domain Carnevali invites us to look at society ancient to contemporary as an aesthetic phenomenon The ways in which we appear in public and the impressions we make in terms of images sounds smells and sensations are discerned by other people's senses and assessed according to their taste this helps shape our ways of being and the world around us Carnevali shows that an understanding of appearances is necessary to grasp the dynamics of interaction recognition and power in which we live and to avoid being dominated by them Anchored in philosophy and traversing sociology art history literature and popular culture Social Appearances develops new theoretical and conceptual tools for today's most urgent critical tasks

Handsomely Done Daniel Hoffman-Schwartz, 2019-04-15 Handsomely Done Aesthetics Politics and Media after Melville brings together leading and emerging scholars from comparative literature critical theory and media studies to examine Melville's works in light of their ongoing afterlife and seemingly permanent contemporaneity The volume explores the curious fact that the works of this most linguistically complex and seemingly most untranslatable of authors have yielded such compelling translations and adaptations as well as the related tendency of Melville's writing to flash into relevance at every new historical political conjuncture The volume thus engages not only Melville reception across media Jorge Luis Borges John Huston Jean Luc Godard Led Zeppelin Claire Denis but also the Melvillean resonances and echoes of various political events and movements such as the Attica uprising the Red Army Faction Occupy Wall Street and Black Lives Matter This consideration of Melville's afterlife opens onto theorizations of intermediality untranslatability and material intensity even as it also continually faces the most concrete and pressing questions of history and politics

Aesthetic Theory Across the Disciplines Max Ryyänen, Zoltán Somhegyi, 2023-11-13 What is aesthetics How is it related to other disciplines The chapters of this book examine the history theoretical conditions and connection points between aesthetics and other disciplines At the same time the authors are also interested in practical clashes of methodology and agenda especially when it is not merely about the securing of the position of one or the other discipline but is used in a dialogical manner as the form of understanding better the nature of both as well as the benefits of their collaboration The authors work on the border of aesthetics and at least one other academic field Through their regular scholarly activities the contributors constantly benefit from cross and interdisciplinary practice and this makes them ideal interpreters of these methodological questions Contributors include Mami Aota Karl Axelsson Paul Duncum Lisa Giombini Oiva Kuisma Jacob Lund Tyrus Miller Max Ryynönen Mateusz Salwa Zoltán Somhegyi Wendy Steiner and Joseph Tanke
