Artists Living With Art:

Artists Living with Art Stacey Goergen, Amanda Benchley, 2015-09-22 Artists living with art is full of fascinating and often surprising revelations about the artworks a select group of the world's most influential contemporary artists choose to collect and display in the intimacy of their own homes Just as Andy Warhol famously collected cookie jars so do these 25 artists all living in New York collect art and in some cases mundane objects they cherish as art The works they display reflect remarkably diverse eclectic and often unexpected tastes Many of these homes some of which also function as studios have never been seen and offer unique insight into each artists personal life creative process and artistic practices as well as what inspires them and who their friends are many swap art with one another Readers will learn about the pieces most treasured by each artist as well as their favourite period in art a surprising number have a preference for pre twentieth century art Authors Stacey Goergen and Amanda Benchley gained unprecedented access into each home for the photography and interviews and highly acclaimed photographer Oberto Gili was commissioned to shoot these homes especially for the book Living with Art - from Creator to Collector No.1 Katrine Martensen-Larse, This book takes you on private visits to ten Danish contemporary artists where we are allowed behind the scenes insight into the creative process We see both ongoing and completed works the materials tools and thought processes used Through conversations with the artists we are party to their own stories as to why they became artists and how they arrived to where they are today What consumes them What drives them What inspires them 0After each artist portrait we are welcomed inside the individual homes of true art collectors Some are vibrant and colourful Others are monochrome and more subdued Some are very feminine while others exude masculinity The common denominator is that they are brimming with art and that everything has been thought through They also happen to have a work by the artist we have just visited We ask what art means to them and show how they align themselves with the pieces Visions: Artists Living with Epilepsy Steven C. Schachter, 2003-11-17 Visions Artists Living with Epilepsy is the art of epilepsy captured in a book You will discover beautiful insightful haunting images that reveal the souls of artists touched by epilepsy Contains 200 high quality reproductions of works of art Includes the artists biographies CD ROM of the artwork is also available separately or as part of the Deluxe Edition Living with Art Holly Solomon, Alexandra Anderson-Spivy, 1988 Living with the Royal Academy Professor John Barrell, 2013-12-16 Living with the Royal Academy directs attention to the textures of artists relationships with the Royal Academy in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britain This essay collection considers the Academy as a lived organism one whose most effective role was as a reference point around which artists operated in their relationships with each other and with artistic practice itself Living with the Royal Academy Sarah Monks, 2017-07-05 Living with the Royal Academy Artistic Ideals and Experiences in England 1768 1848 offers a range of case studies which consider individual artists personal professional and artistic relationships with the Royal Academy during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries bringing together the research of leading historians of British artistic culture during this period Over its introduction and nine essays this collection considers the Academy as a lived organism whose most effective role following its establishment in 1768 was as a reference point towards around and against which artists operated in their relationships with each other and with artistic practice itself In so doing this collection also considers the relationship between Academic ideals and individual practice as well as lived experience during this period of art s increasingly public manifestation at the Academy Individual artists examined include Joshua Reynolds Joseph Wright of Derby Benjamin West and William Etty Thinking beyond the dichotomy of loyalism and rebellion and complicating notions of the Academy as a monolithic ossifying institution from which progressive artists would be liberated in the wake of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood s emergence in 1848 this volume investigates the Academy s varied impact upon the lives experiences and ideals of its diverse artistic communities Artists at Home Susie Hodge,2023-10-17 Artists at Home looks inside the homes of great artists and examines how their interiors reflected and inspired their artistic spirit The Artist's Guide Jackie Battenfield,2009-06-09 A comprehensive guide for both emerging and mid career artists to pursue a career in the visual arts Providing real life examples illustrations and step by step exercises Battenfield offers readily applicable advice on all aspects of the job Along with tips on planning and assessment she presents strategies for self management including marketing online promotion building professional relationships grant writing and portfolio development Each chapter ends with an insightful Reality Check interview featuring advice and useful information from high profile artists and professionals The result is an inspiring experiential guide brimming with field tested techniques that readers can easily apply to their own career New York Magazine ,1989-12-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Selected Characteristics of Artists, 1970 National Endowment for the Arts.
