Around the World in 80 Days Jules Verne, 2020-10-08 Phileas Fogg puts up half his fortune wagering that he can circumnavigate the earth in 80 days Encountering one adventure after another and pursued by a determined policeman Fogg's inventiveness will be challenged to its limit When Phileas Fogg brashly accepts a bet that he can travel around the world in a mere 80 days he not only risks his fortune but his life Complications in his travel occur early and often with Fogg and his loyal valet Passepartout falling behind schedule and struggling to catch up as the author brilliantly blocks their path with everything from a relentlessly pursuing policeman who mistakenly believes Fogg to be a bank robber to attacks by Sioux braves and a mutiny at sea Interspersed with all the driving action are colorful glimpses of distant lands and descriptions of Fogg's various forms of travel which range from train and steamer to elephant and wind powered sleigh A bestseller in its day Around the World in Eighty Days was first published in 1873 and conveys the excitement and fascination felt by both the author and his readers for the Victorian era's fresh new possibilities in travel The sweep and charm of this adventure classic are undimmed today With an eye catching new cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Around the World in Eighty Days is both modern and readable Around The World In Eighty Days Michael Palin, 2010-05-27 The pace of this kind of travel has not much changed since Fogg set out in 1872 Trains may be a little faster but there are certainly no high speed rail links yet across India China or the USA Passenger services have practically disappeared from the world's shipping lanes Recourse to air travel even as a convenient means of escape was not allowed Following the route taken by Phileas Fogg 115 years earlier Michael Palin set out from the Reform Club to circumnavigate the world The rules were simple but nothing else about the trip was straightforward From a tour of Venice on a rubbish barge to ship spotting at the Suez Canal and the bicycle rush hour and snake snacks in China this is an unparalleled tribute to man's ability to make life difficult for himself
