Arrows of Longing Anaïs Nin, Felix Pollak, 1998 Arrows of Longing presents an Anais Nin radically different from the self conscious persona of the diaries and fiction The woman engaged in this long private correspondence emerges as warm self effacing empathetic and ready to bear the burdens of others Felix Pollak the poet whose friendship with Nin is documented here also struggled for personal and artistic fulfillment

The Making of a Counter-culture Icon Maria R. Bloshteyn, 2007-01-01 At first glance the works of Fedor Dostoevsky 1821 1881 do not appear to have much in common with those of the controversial American writer Henry Miller 1891 1980 However the influencer of Dostoevsky on Miller was in fact enormous and shaped the latter's view of the world of literature and of his own writing The Making of a Counter Culture Icon examines the obsession that Miller and his contemporaries the so called Villa Seurat circle had with Dostoevsky and the impact that this obsession had on their own work Renowned for his psychological treatment of characters Dostoevsky became a model for Miller Lawrence Durrell and Anais Nin interested as they were in developing a new kind of writing that would move beyond staid literary conventions Maria Bloshteyn argues that as Dostoevsky was concerned with representing the individual's perception of the self and the world he became an archetype for Miller and the other members of the Villa Seurat circle writers who were interested in precise psychological characterizations as well as intriguing narratives Tracing the cross cultural appropriation and mis interpretation of Dostoevsky's methods and philosophies by Miller Durrell and Nin The Making of a Counter Culture Icon gives invaluable insight into the early careers of the Villa Seurat writers and testifies to Dostoevsky's influence on twentieth century literature

Trapeze Anaïs Nin, 2017-05-15 Anaïs Nin made her reputation through publication of her edited diaries and the carefully constructed persona they presented It was not until decades later when the diaries were published in their unexpurgated form that the world began to learn the full details of Nin's fascinating life and the emotional and literary high wire acts she committed both in documenting it and in defying the mores of 1950s America Trapeze begins where the previous volume Mirages left off when Nin met Rupert Pole the young man who became not only her lover but later her husband in a bigamous marriage It marks the start of what Nin came to call her trapeze life swinging between her longtime husband Hugh Guiler in New York and her lover Pole in California a perilous lifestyle she continued until her death in 1977 Today what Nin did seems impossible and what she sought perhaps was impossible to find harmony and completeness within a split existence It is a story of daring and genius love and pain largely unknown until now Anais ,1998 Dictionary of Literary Biography - Yearbook 1998 Matthew J. Bruccoli,George Garrett,Richard Layman,1999-04 Updates entries already published and supplements the Dictionary of Literary Biography series with entries on newly prominent writers New Books on Women and Feminism ,1999
