Engaging Art Roslyn Bernstein, 2020-05-14 This book explores the tangled texture of the art world a curious and mysterious space In 60 essays drawn from around the globe it reveals new dimensions about how artists make their art resist censorship and retain an independent creative spirit The essays ask and answer several crucial questions How do artists in Europe the United States Asia the Middle East and Latin and South America find space to live and work How do artists follow their talent to make and exhibit original art in a politicized world where artistic freedom is often limited How do smaller artistic venues survive the economic pressures and competition in the art market Focusing on under the radar subjects the reports interviews and essays illuminate the pain and pleasures of artistic production and the challenges faced by artists curators and gallerists

We Gather Together Charles C. Eldredge, 2022-01-18 The mutual history of art agriculture and American identity as told through the theme of the harvest The harvest has traditionally been a productive season both on American farms and in its artists studios Before the early nineteenth century the ideal of the Jeffersonian yeoman singly cultivating a subsistence plot for family use dominated the American imagination after World War II the advent of big agribusiness proved less immediately attractive for artists In We Gather Together Charles C Eldredge examines the period in between when many Americans were farmers and much of America was farmland Organized in a series of case studies each devoted to a single crop We Gather Together initially focuses on familiar commodity crops such as corn wheat and potatoes and then expands to other yields by Native American harvesters and California floriculturists as well as winter ice cutters and coastal seaweed gatherers This novel history of agriculture and art traces parallel developments on land and canvas highlighting breakthroughs in each field Artists such as Winslow Homer Doris Lee and Georgia O Keeffe are joined by innovators in agriculture whether mechanical inventors such as Eli Whitney John Deere and Cyrus McCormick or genetic hybridizers such as Luther Burbank W Atlee Burpee and Theodosia Shepherd Surveying an astonishing amount of material and a wide range of paintings prints and other artworks from the nineteenth century to the mid twentieth century We Gather Together gorgeously demonstrates how the use of agricultural metaphors permeated American visual culture The harvest we see here came to signify and dominate politics poetry and popular culture ultimately representing a primary facet of American identity and nationhood

Marion Greenwood Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2025 This book is the first biography of a woman whose star blazed through the twentieth century art world Born in Brooklyn in 1909 artist Marion Greenwood attended and thrived at now storied institutions and arts centers The Art Students League the studio of German modernist Winold Reiss the Woodstock Colony and Yaddo In 1933 she catapulted to international fame as the first woman to paint a public mural in Mexico and was celebrated by Diego Rivera as one of the world's greatest living women mural painters Greenwood traveled the globe to create award winning portraits of people from diverse backgrounds crossing racial cultural and class lines to reflect her vision for a more just world Based on a decade of research and interviews biographer Joanne B Mulcahy integrates Greenwood's adventuresome personal life with her journey to artistic glory Mulcahy deftly contextualizes Greenwood's participation in the heady art scenes of 1920s and 1930s Mexico New York City and Paris and her role as one of two women artist correspondents during World War II After social realism and portraiture fell from favor Greenwood doggedly stuck with the human thing in art Her freewheeling romantic life defied expectations for women and she fought sexist critics who mixed acclaim for her work with commentary on her stunning beauty A feminist pioneer she made a living as an artist in a time when few women did In following Greenwood's maverick path and artistic achievements this book carves out a central place for her in the pantheon of history's remarkable women artists

Art for the Millions Allison Rudnick, 2023-09-05 American art in the 1930s intertwined with the political social and economic tumult of an era not so unlike our own engaged with the public amid global upheaval This publication examines the search for artistic identity in the United States from the stock market crash of 1929 that began the Great Depression to the closure of the Works Progress Administration in 1943 with a focus on the unprecedented dissemination of art and ideas brought about by new technology and government programs During this time of civil economic and social unrest artists transmitted political ideas and propaganda through a wide range of media including paintings and sculptures but also journals prints textiles postcards and other objects that would have been widely collected experienced or encountered Insightful essays discuss but go beyond the era's best known creators such as Thomas Hart Benton Walker Evans Marsden Hartley and Georgia O Keeffe to highlight artists who have received little scholarly attention including women and artists of color as well as designers and illustrators Emphasizing the contributions of the Black Popular Front and Leftist movements while acknowledging competing visions of the country through the lenses of race gender and class Art for the Millions is a timely look at art in the United States made by and for its people

The Women of Atelier 17 Christina Weyl, 2019-01-01 This timely reexamination of the experimental New York print studio Atelier 17 focuses on the women whose work defied gender norms through novel aesthetic forms and techniques

Grant Wood Barbara Haskell, 2018-01-01 The social and political climate in which Wood's art flourished bears certain striking similarities to America today as national identity and the tension between urban and rural areas reemerge as polarizing issues in a country facing the consequences of globalization and the technological revolution Wood portrayed the tension and alienation of contemporary experience By fusing meticulously observed reality with fables of childhood he crafted unsettling images of estrangement and apprehension that pictorially manifest the anxiety of modern life
