Losing the Ring in the River Marjorie Saiser, 2013-03-30 Spare and incisive the poems in Losing the Ring in the River deal with three strong women Clara Emma and Liz women who are tough often sassy and have dreams that aren't quelled by the realities they face Saiser deftly explores the undercurrents connecting three generations and is at her most powerful when she explores how lives are restricted and sometimes painfully damaged by what people cannot or will not share with one another Saiser's poetry is as harsh as it is beautiful she avoids resolutions and easy endings focusing instead on the small hard won victories that each woman experiences in her life and in her love of those around her

Begging for Vultures Lawrence Welsh, 2011-08-15 The poetry of Lawrence Welsh crosses many borders from South Central Los Angeles where he was raised to El Paso where he has lived for almost twenty years A newspaper man turned poet a punk rock songwriter who became an English teacher an Irishman at home in Texas Welsh gives voice to the famous the infamous and the forgotten

Progress on the Subject of Immensity Leslie Ullman, 2013-08-30 Leslie Ullman's deeply meditative poems reflect an individual's exploration of herself and her relationship to the natural world and other people The Southwest is the setting of her inquiry and her work is grounded in the rhythms of the natural world The poems have a quiet intensity about them that engages the reader Provided by publisher

Say That Felecia Caton Garcia, 2013-03-15 In Caton Garcia's poems love loss memory and the hidden lives of a variety of characters become the interwoven themes of this book each presented in raw and unflinching narrative and metaphor The first section presents the speaker's lived experiences and the second unveils a dreamlife where memory and history haunt the lives they lead Provided by publisher

City of Slow Dissolve John Chávez, 2012-09-15 Before recovery comes the preparation to recover In City of Slow Dissolve John Chavez takes readers through this journey the slow dissolve the unpacking and re-packing of self that must take place before healing can begin Fusing language poetry lyric and narrative Chavez uses syntactical play rhythm and repetition of key words and lines to lend immediacy to emotions and actions He tips words and images on their heads and invites readers to reexamine people and places that are at once familiar and utterly unfamiliar

Breaths Eleuterio Santiago-Díaz, 2012-03-15 Breaths is a poetic exploration of Budo the Japanese martial arts and Zen It delves into the relationship between these two traditions and projects their spirit onto the textures of everyday life The poems balance action energy meditation and contemplation on how to live attentively and actively in the world Accompanied by Yoshiko Shimano's eloquent prints these poems will energize and captivate readers while inviting them to seek their own paths to illumination

Flirt Noah Blaustein, 2013-09-15 The narrator of these poems flirts constantly with women with physical danger with memory and grief with form and sound The poems are set in California and along the California border and a few poems reflect upon his wife s childhood in El Salvador Provided by publisher

Bolitas de Oro Nasario García, 2010-07-16 The author of Tiempos Lejanos Poetic Images from the Past returns to his roots in a new and exciting book of poetry about his childhood in Guadalupe New Mexico originally called Ojo del Padre presumably in honor of a priest who discovered a still bubbling spring in the area The village of Guadalupe is no more but Garcia s vibrant word pictures transport us to a time and place of true community and existence Written first in Spanish then translated to English these poems paint his young life and the lives of his family members and neighbors in west central New Mexico in the mid twentieth century Garcia s perceptions of a wider world and all it includes but still anchored in the routines of home and play and work were imparted by his mother who never attended a day of school in her life If I had a choice to repeat any previous period of my life it would be my childhood in the Rio Puerco Valley it was unfettered replete with love and happiness but never immune to the trials and tribulations that people faced Since reliving one s past is not an option offering a poetic vision of my upbringing in rural New Mexico was the next best thing from the Introduction
