A Promise In Haiti A Reporters Notes On Families And Daily Lives

Fequiere Vilsaint, Michael R. Hall

A Promise In Haiti A Reporters Notes On Families And Daily Lives:

A Promise in Haiti Mark Curnutte, 2011-07-22 When a devastating earthquake struck near Port au Prince Haiti on January 12 2010 the world reacted with a collective yet distant horror For Cincinnati Enquirer reporter Mark Curnutte hearing the news provoked a far more visceral response Curnutte had grown to love Haiti and its people as only someone who had lived with Haiti's families could A Promise in Haiti is Curnutte's story of his time spanning the last decade living among several families in Gonaives a city of 200 000 people a hundred kilometers north of Port au Prince He began traveling to Haiti as a volunteer with the aid organization Hands Together eventually building trust and credibility with many Haitians Curnutte introduces the reader to the Cenecharles family strained by entrenched unemployment and the need to continually travel for work He is invited into the home of the Henrisma family and is forced to reconcile journalistic detachment with basic compassion as he contributes financially to help them The reader is confronted with a complicated conflicted written and photographic record of a worldview that evolves right on the page As a reporter Curnutte found parallels between the lives he encountered in Gonaives and the world of the Great Depression recounted in James Agee and Walker Evans's Let Us Now Praise Famous Men Agee and Evans loom large as a challenge and inspiration to Curnutte The result is equal parts homage to that historic chronicle on the ground reporting and introspective narrative on the lessons Gonaives taught Curnutte about his own life and family In late February 2010 Curnutte went back to Haiti on assignment but conditions made it impossible for him to return to Gonaives The resulting frustration provoked a meditation on the monumental challenges that face Haiti and on the destructive cycle of international attention that constantly moves on to The Next Big Story Historical
