physical and mental excitement that the quietest and most soothing of friendly voices had no other effect upon me than to jar and irritate Work was impossible music my one passion intolerable books became wearisome to my sight and even a short walk in the open air brought with it such lassitude and exhaustion that I soon grew to dislike the very thought of moving out of doors In such a condition of health medical aid became necessary and a skilful and amiable physician Dr R of great repute in nervous ailments attended me for many weeks with but slight success He was not to blame poor man for his failure to effect a cure He had only one way of treatment and he applied it to all his patients with more or less happy results Some died some recovered it was a lottery on which my medical friend staked his reputation and won The patients who died were never heard of more those who recovered sang the praises of their physician everywhere and sent him gifts of silver plate and hampers of wine to testify their gratitude His popularity was very great his skill considered marvellous and his inability to do ME any good arose I must perforce imagine out of some defect or hidden obstinacy in my constitution which was to him a new experience
