There is an opportunity to establish this book as the definitive telling of the story in the mould of CLR James's Beyond a Boundary. Strong Publicity. Boria Majumdar, 2006-01-16 Lost Histories of Indian Cricket studies the personalities and controversies that have shaped Indian cricket over the years and brings to life the intensity surrounding India's national game. It may be true that that cricket today arouses more passions in India than in any other cricket playing country in the world. Yet when it comes to writing on the history of the game, Indians have been reticent and much of the past has been obscured and lost. Majumdar here recovers this history and restores it to its rightful place in India's rich sporting heritage. A Maidan View Mihir Bose, 2006

Examines cricket's influence on India from the beginnings to the growth that led to India becoming the commercial backbone of the sport worldwide. Once Upon a Furore Boria Majumdar, 2004 Extensively based on nearly forgotten and long out of print classic titles, old newspaper reports and official archives, Once Upon A Furore is an important addition to the steadily growing corpus of contemporary writing on the history of Indian cricket. Each chapter of the book presents a captivating story of intrigue and power play. Through a look at controversies that have plagued Indian cricket over the years, this book draws attention to the fact that the country's intense engagement with the game stretches back more than a century. In doing so, the author brings to light the writings of those he calls the day-to-day historians of cricket like J C Maitra, Berry Sarbadhikary and J M Ganguly, who had written on the game for years in newspapers and journals yet remain little known to even the most avid sports enthusiast in contemporary India. An engaging slice from the fascinating saga of Indian cricket, this book is as much a collector's item for the sports enthusiast as it is serious reading for the cultural historian. The 4th Lord Harris, Bombay Cricket and the Civilising Mission, 1890-1895 B. A. Tosland, 2014
