The Power of Adrienne Rich Hilary Holladay, 2025-04-15 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A comprehensive biography of one of the most acclaimed poets of her generation and a face of American feminism New York Times A major American writer thinker and activist Adrienne Rich 1929 2012 transformed herself from a traditional Radcliffe educated lyric poet and married mother of three sons into a path breaking lesbian feminist author of forceful uncompromising prose as well as poetry In doing so she emerged as an architect and exemplar of the feminist movement breaking ranks to denounce the male dominated literary establishment and paving the way for women writers to take their places in the cultural mainstream Drawing on a wealth of unpublished materials including Rich's correspondence and in depth interviews with many people who knew her Hilary Holladay provides a vividly detailed full dimensional portrait of a woman whose work and life continue to challenge and inspire new generations

A Cultural History of the Soul Kocku von Stuckrad, 2022-02-15 The soul which dominated many intellectual debates at the beginning of the twentieth century has virtually disappeared from the sciences and the humanities Yet it is everywhere in popular culture from holistic therapies and new spiritual practices to literature and film to ecological and political ideologies Ignored by scholars it is hiding in plain sight in a plethora of religious psychological environmental and scientific movements This book uncovers the history of the concept of the soul in twentieth century Europe and North America Beginning in fin de siècle Germany Kocku von Stuckrad examines a fascination spanning philosophy the sciences the arts and the study of religion as well as occultism and spiritualism against the backdrop of the emergence of experimental psychology He then explores how and why the United States witnessed a flowering of ideas about the soul in popular culture and spirituality in the latter half of the century Von Stuckrad examines an astonishingly wide range of figures and movements ranging from Ernest Renan Martin Buber and Carl Gustav Jung to the Esalen Institute deep ecology and revivals of shamanism animism and paganism to Rachel Carson Ursula K Le Guin and the Harry Potter franchise Revealing how the soul remains central to a culture that is only seemingly secular this book casts new light on the place of spirituality religion and metaphysics in Europe and North America today

Women Poets and Myth in the 20th and 21st Centuries Rosa Burillo, María Porras Sánchez, Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2018-10-29 This book rereads and re-examines the important tradition of women poets and theorists who have both critically and creatively engaged with the study and reconsideration of the role played by myths in our Western society assessing their impact in different eras Such poets and theorists as H D Laura Riding Denise Levertov Margaret Atwood Anne Carson and Natalie Diaz have responded to myths either by recreating rewriting and interrogating the power of myths to articulate our reality or by creating and begetting new myths for the present In order to interrogate whether myths throughout the 20th and 21st centuries can act as catalysts for new ideas and imaginative re-creations this volume travels the path of essential works of poetry by women

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov's social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience

Vento, 2018 This collection of essays on political theology including one by its inspiration Johann Baptist Metz accepts the challenge of how to live mercifully in difficult times The authors respond to the call of Pope Francis to respond with mercy compassion and solidarity to a global culture of indifference

The Saving Grace of America's Green Jeremiad John

Gatta, 2022-04-01 American nature writing characteristically embodies an appreciative lyrical evocation of the natural world But often too green disposed authors have been moved to dramatize diverse anthropogenic perils to environmental health John Gatta freshly reveals how this dark yet graced and hopeful strain of environmental literature enlarges upon a jeremiad tradition of prophecy inherited from Puritan New England Across successive historical periods such expression has assumed a rich variety of American form as creative nonfiction poetry fiction or film documentary In the spirit of ancient Hebrew prophecy jeremiads unlike diatribes reach beyond effusions of doom and gloom toward the prospect of change through a conversion of heart Accordingly the new climate fiction and much other writing steeped in what Gatta terms this Green Jeremiad tradition not only warn of material threats to life's flourishing but may also look to stir spiritual understanding and renewal
