Audiences and Intentions Nancy M. Bradbury, Arthur Quinn, 1994 Audiences and Intentions Nancy M. Bradbury, 1997-02 The Philosophy of Argument and Audience Reception Christopher W. Tindale, 2015-04-30 Recent work in argumentation theory has emphasized the nature of arguers and arguments along with various theoretical perspectives Less attention has been given to the third feature of any argumentative situation the audience This book fills that gap by studying audience reception to argumentation and the problems that come to light as a result of this shift in focus Christopher W Tindale advances the tacit theories of several earlier thinkers by addressing the central problems connected with audience considerations in argumentation problems that earlier philosophical theories overlook or inadequately accommodate The main tools employed in exploring the central issues are drawn from contemporary philosophical research on meaning testimony emotion and agency These are then combined with some of the major insights of recent rhetorical work in argumentation to advance our understanding of audiences and suggest avenues for further research

Ré, 2023-12-09 Dissemination is a key component of the research process While several fields have developed resources dedicated to training and supporting their scientists and practitioners as they are encouraged to disseminate within their fields and to the larger public audience there has been a lack of formal guidance for dissemination within the behavioral sciences Disseminating Behavioral Science aims to fill that gap providing guidance across modalities for topics ranging from the peer review process to conference presentation to nontraditional avenues for dissemination The contents of this edited text divided across six sections serves as a roadmap for students junior researchers and senior scholars The first section includes types of academic scholarship types of dissemination and strategies to ensure ethical dissemination The second reviews traditional publication preparation including tips for the writing process and key components to include in each section of a scientific manuscript Section Three explores publication within a traditional peer reviewed journal Section Four outlines additional strategies to get research publicly recognized through conference presentations social media and popular media sources and white and grey literature Sections Five and Six offer a consolidated glossary of all key terms in the text and combined reference list The

Intentions Arabella Lyon, 1998-09-15 The relationship between an author s and an audience s intentions is complex but need not preclude mutual engagement This philosophical investigation challenges existing literary and rhetorical perspectives on intention and offers a new framework for understanding the negotiation of meaning It describes how an audience s intentions affect their interpretations shows how audiences negotiate meaning when faced with a writer s undecipherable intentions and defines the scope of understanding within rhetorical situations Introducing a concept of intention into literary analysis that supersedes existing rhetorical theory Arabella Lyon shows how the rhetorics of I A Richards Wayne Booth and Stanley Fish as well as the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer fail to account for the complex interactions of author and audience Using Kenneth Burke s concepts of form motive and purpose she builds a more complex notion of intention than those usually found in literary studies then employs her theory to describe how philosophers read Wittgenstein s narratives metaphors and reversals in argument Lyon argues that our differences in intention prevent consistency in interpretations but do not stop our discussions deliberations and actions She seeks to acknowledge difference and the communicative problems it creates while demonstrating that difference is normal and does not end our engagement with each other Intentions combines recent work in philosophy literary criticism hermeneutics and rhetoric in a highly imaginative way to construct a theory of intention for a postmodern rhetoric It recovers and renovates central concepts in rhetorical theory not only intention but also deliberation politics and judgment

Argumentation Larry Underberg, Heather Norton, 2017-07-13 This book teaches the principles of argumentation as a practical way to engage in interpersonal and public deliberation With a unique emphasis on encouraging polite discourse the book the case that how we argue is as important as the individual arguments that we offer
