Stephens, 2025-03-25 How a new generation of women centered dramedies has revolutionized contemporary television This timely and telling analysis identifies the formal and thematic innovations pioneered by millennial feminists between 2012 and 2020 that have shaped the trajectory of our favorite shows today Author Vincent L Stephens offers close readings of nine pivotal series including Girls Orange Is the New Black Broad City Jane the Virgin Crazy Ex Girlfriend Fleabag Insecure Shrill and I May Destroy You Across these series women led creative teams translated techniques from indie films inverted

Halfyard, Nicholas Reyland, 2024-12-17 The Palgrave Handbook to Music and Sound in Peak TV charts the transformation of television's sonic storytelling during the new golden age of televisual narrative from the late 1990s to the early 2020s Grounded in close analytical critical and theoretical work identifying the key traits of music and sound in this peak TV period the book casts its critical net wider to develop interpretations of significance not just for screen music studies and musicology but for screen and media studies too By theorizing peakness with respect to sound and music and by drawing together contributions from a diverse collection of prominent musicologists media scholars and practitioners this handbook provides the authoritative guide to the role music has played in creating the success of some of the most culturally and commercially significant popular art of the early twenty first century The volume contains 25 essays in three main sections Concepts and Aesthetics Practices and Production and Audiences and Interpretations Topics discussed include peakness complexity ostentatious scoring antiheroes memory franchises worldbuilding nostalgia maternity trauma actor's voices title sequences library music branding queer camp scoring kids TV captioning industry practices HBO and sound design Shows examined include The Sopranos The Wire Game of Thrones Battlestar Galactica Westworld Buffy the Vampire Slayer Stranger Things The Bridge Dexter Killing Eve Mad Men American Horror Story Rings of Power Fargo Peaky Blinders Call the Midwife Twin Peaks and Twin Peaks The Return Bad Sex Billy Holzberg, Jacqueline Gibbs, Aura Lehtonen, 2025-02-06 Bad Sex traces the evolution of representations of sex on screen from earlier portrayals of sex as glamorous or taboo to more complex depictions of often awkward or painful experiences and feelings Jacqueline Gibbs Billy Holzberg and Aura Lehtonen examine the representation of sex and sexuality in contemporary English language drama and dramedy shows like Fleabag 2016 2019 Sex Education 2019 23 I May Destroy You 2020 and Euphoria 2019 arguing that TV is where the politics of sexuality and gender is negotiated under the contemporary conditions of neoliberalism Through a cultural analysis of key television shows they identify this shift as driven by the diversification of representations of sex and sexuality as women trans and non binary Black and minority ethnic working class and disabled TV professionals carve some space in a traditionally white middle class cis male dominated industry In doing so they explore the affective potential and limits of bad sex on our screens and what these representations can tell us about sexual politics and gender cultures today The Limits of #MeToo in Hollywood Margaret Tally, 2021-07-06 In October 2017 actress Alyssa Milano sparked the

MeToo movement The ensuing protests quickly encompassed far more than Harvey Weinstein and the entertainment industry They expressed women s outrage at male workplace behavior in every sector and social class and even helped elect a new generation of women leaders in 2018 But what has been the effect of MeToo in the entertainment industry itself This book traces the movement s influence on the stories being told on changing representations of women s lives and bodies and on the slow changes among the producers who shape the stories Analyzing a wide set of TV and film genres including crime legal and medical dramas comedies horror and reality programming this book covers the complex ways that media respond to social movements They sometimes give voice to brand new or previously silenced stories but just as often make facile references that can blunt the potential for change or even fuel cultural backlash

Horrible White People Taylor Nygaard, Jorie Lagerwey, 2020-11-24 Examines the bleak television comedies that illustrate the obsession of the white left with its own anxiety and suffering At the same time that right wing political figures like Donald Trump were elected and reactionary socio economic policies like Brexit were voted into law representations of bleakly comic white fragility spread across television screens American and British programming that featured the abjection of young middle class liberal white people such as Broad City Casual You re the Worst Catastrophe Fleabag and Transparent proliferated to wide popular acclaim in the 2010s Taylor Nygaard and Jorie Lagerwey track how these shows of the white left obsessed with its own anxiety and suffering are complicit in the rise and maintenance of the far right particularly in the mobilization representation and sustenance of structural white supremacy on television Nygaard and Lagerwey examine a cycle of dark television comedies the focus of which are horrible white people by putting them in conversation with similar upmarket comedies from creators and casts of color like Insecure Atlanta Dear White People and Master of None Through their analysis they demonstrate the ways these non white centric shows negotiate prestige TV s dominant aesthetics of whiteness and push back against the centering of white suffering in a time of cultural crisis Through the lens of media analysis and feminist cultural studies Nygaard and Lagerwey s book opens up new ways of looking at contemporary television consumption and the political cultural and social repercussions of these horrible white people shows both on and off screen

The Impossible Woman Kristen Hoerl, 2025-11-11 Although it may seem like the proliferation of strong women on television is a feminist achievement a deeper look into their stories tells us otherwise The Impossible Woman examines a variety of scripted US television series across multiple genres to show how the cultural value of television s extraordinarily talented female characters often rests upon their ability to endure but not overcome sexism Looking at Parks and Recreation The Unbreakable Kimmy Schmidt The Marvelous Mrs Maisel The Queen s Gambit Game of Thrones and Queen of the South Hoerl argues that these series contribute to sexist realism or the cultural assumption that there is no alternative to patriarchy Situating impossible women s struggles in the context of contemporary feminist politics Hoerl explains how the problems facing television s strongest women illustrate mainstream feminism s paradoxical dependence upon on cultural misogyny neoliberal individualism and racism The Impossible Woman encourages readers to seek out alternative stories that might help them envision more just feminist futures

The Procrastination Economy Ethan Tussey, 2020-04-01 2018 Outstanding Academic Title given by Choice Magazine

How mobile devices make our in between moments valuable to media companies while also providing a sense of control and connection In moments of downtime waiting for a friend to arrive or commuting to work we pull out our phones for a few minutes of distraction Just as television reoriented the way we think about living rooms mobile devices have taken over the interstitial spaces of our everyday lives Ethan Tussey argues that these in between moments have created a procrastination economy an opportunity for entertainment companies to create products apps platforms subscription services micropayments and interactive opportunities that can colonize our everyday lives But as businesses commoditize our free time and mobile devices become essential tools for promotion branding and distribution consumers are using these devices as a means of navigating public and private space These devices are not just changing the way we spend and value our time but also how we interact with others and transform our sense of the politics of space By examining the four main locations of the procrastination economy the workplace the commute the waiting room and the connected living room Ethan Tussey illuminates the relationship between the entertainment industry and the digitally empowered public
