Netflix and Streaming Video Amanda D. Lotz, 2022-07-22 Netflix and Streaming Video is the first book to provide a comprehensive foundation for understanding the business of subscriber funded streaming video and its implications for the role of these services in culture Drawing on Lotz's two decades of research it highlights the similarities and differences among streaming video services Netflix Amazon and video distribution technologies broadcast satellite internet Making a number of provocative and thought provoking arguments the book first reveals how the reliance on subscriber payment and video on demand produces different norms and strategies compared to previous video businesses It then investigates Netflix and how its particular blend of characteristics distinguishes it from other subscriber funded video on demand services The author expertly shows that by understanding the underlying economic and technological dynamics of these services and their differences it is possible to better assess the actions taken by the companies and what the future of video may encompass The book is a must read for students and scholars of Media and Communications Studies as well as those wishing to learn more about Netflix and streaming video services

Bodies for Profit and Power Lisa Wenger Bro, 2023-10-05 Early dystopian science fiction like George Orwell's 1984 or Thea von Harbou's Metropolis show us bleak worlds where capitalism has no boundaries and has corrupted sovereign powers exploiting the lower classes and benefiting only a few at the top Political laws and policies related to human life or the biopolitical devalue that life making humanity little more than expendable machines producing for capitalism and capitalism's focus on progress has made it a central concern in much of science fiction Covering science fiction from the early 1900s to present this book examines the portrayal of dystopian capitalism and the biopolitical in works like Brave New World and 1984 among many others

Are We Living in a Disaster Movie? Brian A. Shaer, 2022-08-03 Some periods of history contain so many compounded disasters they seem to be inspired by disaster movies In the early 2020s the Covid 19 pandemic upended the world and thrust populations into a state of uncertainty and fear as seen in movies like Outbreak The Towering Inferno or Armageddon Birthed from the author's original research on disaster movies this book argues that the life cycle of Covid closely parallels various apocalyptic films from the personas of the main players to the strike of the cataclysm itself To view the Covid pandemic through the language of disaster movies the book identifies those that mirror predict each stage of the Covid pandemic analyzing the similarities between the films and real life events A filmography of the featured disaster movies concludes the book
