And Robert Longo Cities Cindy Sherman:

The Pictures Generation, 1974-1984 Douglas Eklund, 2009 Image art after Conceptualism CalArts Hallwalls and Artists Space The jump appropriation and its discontents His gesture moved us to tears pictures art in a reinvigorated market

Robert Longo Robert Longo, 2009 The Men in the Cities series made Robert Longo famous in the 1980s larger than life drawings of sharply dressed businesspeople writhing in contortion under the impact of an invisible obviously violent power a sort of death dance of the modern man Powerful icons that as Longo said exist somewhere between movies and monuments Men in the Cities created between 1977 and 1983 is also an early attempt in merging the diverse fields of Longo's artistic practice sculpture drawing photography and film Longo first appropriated images from magazines newspapers and movie stills Later he began to use his friends as models among them Cindy Sherman Gretchen Bender Brooke Alexander Larry Gagosian and Glenn Branca posing and photographing them himself He would bring them up on the roof of his New York City loft rig up ropes to them throw rubber balls rocks and other objects at them to make them jerk fling or fall and take their picture This book presents the photographic source material to Men in Cities featuring 94 photographs taken by Robert Longo Cindy Sherman herself an internationally renowned artist and close friend of Longo's since their studies at the State University College Buffalo wrote a personal foreword The images are accompanied by an interview with Robert Longo conducted in 1987 by the author and screenwriter Richard Price Art of Our Time Edwin A. Ulrich Museum of Art, Patricia McDonnell, Emily Stamey, Toby Kamps, 2010 Published on the occasion of an exhibition held at the Ulrich Museum of Art Wichita State University Apr 24 Aug 8 2010 The Pictures Generation at Hallwalls Vera Dika, 2023-06-16 In this book Vera Dika rewrites the story of the Pictures Generation from the perspective of the Hallwalls Contemporary Arts Center in Buffalo NY Her work is based on interviews with living artists archival research and personal collections including films videotapes and sound recordings At once aesthetic cultural and political this renewed perspective asks new questions and rewrites past assumptions about the artists work The legendary members of the East Coast Pictures Generation emerged at Hallwalls Contemporary Art Center in Buffalo in the mid 1970s These young people had started Hallwalls an artist run organization that invited artists from a variety of mediums to show their work It also featured productions by the founding members themselves Robert Longo Charles Clough Cindy Sherman Nancy Dwyer and Michael Zwack The works discussed in the volume include performance video films painting music and literature and have been chosen because of the way they foreground states of the body in relationship to conditions of their medium As a distinguishing feature of Hallwalls artists work the practice uses these traces to make metaphors on the process of mechanical reproduction itself The Hallwalls artists work also gives testament to Buffalo and to New York City the cities that formed their historical contexts This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history performance studies film studies and gender studies Pictures and the Past Alexander Bigman, 2024-06-25 The group of artists known as the Pictures Generation are usually thought to have rebelled against abstract and minimalist art by bringing back figural techniques and borrowing liberally from the aesthetics of mass media and advertising Challenging conventional interpretations of this group Alexander Bigman argues that these artists especially Robert Longo Jack Goldstein Sarah Charlesworth Gretchen Bender and Troy Brauntuch deployed totalitarian and fascist iconography to pose new politically loaded questions about what it means to perceive the world historically in a society saturated by images Throughout he also situates their work in the context of other developments taking place in New York City at the time including music fashion cinema and literature This is a book about art popular culture and memory and especially about how the specter of fascism loomed for these artists in the 1970s and 1980s and the ways it still looms for us today
