Knowing Future Time In and Through Greek Historiography Alexandra Lianeri, 2016-03-07 From the early modern period Greek historiography has been studied in the context of Cicero's notion historia magistra vitae and considered to exclude conceptions of the future as different from the present and past Comparisons with the Roman Judeo Christian and modern historiography have sought to justify this perspective by drawing on a category of the future as a temporal mode that breaks with the present In this volume distinguished classicists and historians challenge this contention by raising the question of what the future was and meant in antiquity by offering fresh considerations of prognostic and anticipatory voices in Greek historiography from Herodotus to Appian and by tracing the roots of established views on historical time in the opposition between antiquity and modernity They look both at contemporary scholarly argument and the writings of Greek historians in order to explore the relation of time especially the future to an idea of the historical that is formulated in the plural and is always in motion By reflecting on the prognostic of historical time the volume will be of interest not only to classical scholars but to all who are interested in the history and theory of historical time The Long Quarrel Jacques Bos, Jan Rotmans, 2021-11-15 The Long Quarrel Past and Present in the Eighteenth Century examines how the intellectual clashes emerging from the Quarrel of the Ancients and the Moderns continued to reverberate until the end of the eighteenth century This extended Quarrel was not just about the value of ancient and modern but about historical thought in a broader sense The tension between ancient and modern expanded into a more general tension between past and present which were no longer seen as essentially similar but as different in nature Thus a new kind of historical consciousness came into being in the Long Quarrel of the eighteenth century which also gave rise to new ideas about knowledge art literature and politics Contributors are Jacques Bos Anna Cullhed H kon Evju Vera Fa hauer Andrew Jainchill Anton M Matytsin Iain McDaniel Larry F Norman David D Reitsam Jan Rotmans Friederike Vo kamp and Christine Zabel HOW ROBESPIERRE'S HOSTILITY TOWARD TRADITIONAL RELIGION LED TO THE

TERROR Nuray Bamanie, 2025-04-20 History and Historiography in Classical Utilitarianism, 1800-1865 Callum Barrell, 2021-10-07 This first comprehensive account of the utilitarians historical thought intellectually resituates their conceptions of philosophy and politics at a time when the past acquired new significances as both a means and object of study Drawing on published and unpublished writings and set against the intellectual backdrops of Scottish philosophical history German and French historicism romanticism positivism and the rise of social science and scientific history Callum Barrell recovers the depth with which Jeremy Bentham James Mill George Grote and John Stuart Mill thought about history as a site of philosophy and politics He argues that the utilitarians contrary to their reputations as ahistorical and even antihistorical thinkers developed complex frameworks in which to learn from and negotiate the past inviting us to rethink the foundations of their ideas as well as their place in and relationship to nineteenth century philosophy and political thought
