Where 20 or 30 Are Gathered Peter Bush, Christine O'Reilly, 2006-01-22 While worship is the primary purpose of all churches worship in the small church is distinctive Whether a house church a new church plant a rural church along a country road or a city church whose neighborhood demographics have shifted these small faith communities present unique opportunities and challenges for worship leaders Peter Bush and Christine O'Reilly draw on their passion and experience equipping lay people to plan and lead worship to answer the question what makes for effective worship

The Impact of Church Consultancy Ian G. Duncum, 2019-01-14 This book follows the journey of ten churches who underwent church consultancies and explores in depth both the consultancy and its outcomes Pre consultancy and post consultancy snapshots four to five years apart of vitality indicators and attendance figures using National Church Life Survey and other data are used to compare these with churches that have not undertaken church consultancies Theologies of church consultancy church health and church growth are also developed and examined intersecting with a wide body of literature including contemporary ecclesiologies Consultancy outcomes are examined in detail This includes interviews with pastors of some of those churches reflecting on their perceptions of whether and how the church consultancy impacted the health and growth of their church. Conclusions are drawn about the efficacy of church consultancy in influencing the health and growth of churches as well as contexts for the best use of church consultancy. This is a significant book for denominational leaders, theological lecturers, pastors, and church leaders as they encounter lack of health in churches and seek ways forward for greater health and impact in their local communities.

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 26

,2015-08-25 This volume includes a wide range of papers that explore individual and institutional aspects of religion from a social science perspective. The special section has articles from research groups in Europe, the USA, and Australia on clergy work-related psychological health, stress, burnout, and coping strategies. The general papers include studies on coping strategies among Buddhists, gender differences in response to church decline, teenage participation in religion, social capital among Friends of Cathedrals, psychological profiles of clergy, education effects on Roman Catholic deacons, and an analysis of prayer requests. Together, these papers form a valuable collection indicating the depth and vibrancy of research in these fields. Contributors are Tania Ap Sion, Rachel Blouin, Christine Brewster, the late Deborah Bruce, Cheng Clara, Michelle Giuseppe, Crea Benjamin, Doolittle Joseph, Ferrari Leslie, J Francis, Philip Hughes, Patrick Laycock, Steve McMullin, Judith Muskett, Gemma Penny, Russell Phillips, Rae Jean, Proeschold Bell, Kelvin Randall, Mandy Robbins, Jenny Rolph, Paul Rolph, Greg Smith, Sam Sterland, Andrew Village, Kay William, Cynthia Woolever, and Keith Wulff.

The Calling of Congregational Leadership Larry L. McSwain, 2013-05-30 Leading is a calling from God, but that doesn't mean it is easy. There are choices to be made about what your congregation believes, how your church organizes for effective ministry, and how your church serves the settings of which you are a part. The good news is that others have gone before you. Author Larry L. McSwain's forty years of experience can help guide you through these choices. Rooted in research, The Calling of Congregational Leadership teaches a three-pronged approach to congregational leadership: being a good leader, the knowledge needed by the leader, and the managing of ministry leadership. By using this practical, holistic approach to leading congregations, McSwain shows you how to use your church's potential for conveying the power of God in the lives you touch. The Calling of Congregational Leadership is for those who seek to enlarge their understanding of their leadership to make their communities of faith more vital and more reflective of the mission of God in the world.

The Other 80 Percent Scott Thumma, Warren Bird, 2011-04-12 A research-based approach to developing more active and involved congregations. In this practical resource, well-known and respected researcher Scott Thumma and professional co-writer Warren Bird draw upon new and heretofore unpublished research across a broad range of Protestant churches of all sizes and show how to create more active members. Offers solid information of what church leaders need to know about the factors and practices that create church members who are more actively and passionately involved in their congregations. Offers a first-of-its-kind resource for developing engaged congregations. Lead author Scott Thumma is a noted researcher and writer on congregational studies. Warren Bird is coauthor of Culture Shift and Viral Churches This book offers advice for moving church members from being spectators to living a life of discipleship and faith Wake Up, Lazarus! Pierre Hegy, 2012 Today's Catholic Church faces a major decline and a dramatic renewal is needed to facilitate positive change Three general factors that contribute to the spiritual decline of all mainline churches and three factors that are special to the Catholic Church Hegy describes the inner workings of two successful parishes one evangelical and the other Catholic to illustrate the strategies used that contribute to vibrant and growing church communities He also reviews various renewal plans and then presents his personal long term plan for renewal in the Catholic Church with practical implementation suggestions included in each step
