Light from Light Louis K. Dupré, James A. Wiseman, 2001 In this revised edition of a longtime bestselling anthology of Christian mysticism editors Louis Dupre and James Wiseman bring together selections from the writings of twenty three of the most important Christian mystics from Origen of Alexandria in the third century to Thomas Merton in the twentieth This edition retains most of the authors included in the first addition but has replaced some authors from that edition with ones that will be of greater interest to readers today e g Francis and Clare of Assisi Francis de Sales and Jane de Chantal and Evelyn Underhill A general introduction discusses the place of mysticism within the Christian life as a whole while individual chapter introductions place the mystical writers in their historical context and relate their works to others in the anthology In addition the editors have completely updated the bibliographies at the end of each chapter Students and teachers of spirituality as well as persons interested in their own spiritual growth will welcome this popular revised resource because it makes readily available in one volume major works by important Christian mystical writers Like its predecessor it is sure to be welcomed in the academic world and spiritual and devotional circles

The Metaphysics of Dante's Comedy Christian Moevs, 2008-10-13 The recovery of Dante's metaphysics which are very different from our own is essential argues Christian Moevs if we are to resolve what has been called the central problem in the interpretation of the Comedy That problem is what to make of the Comedy's claim to the status of revelation vision or experiential record as something more than imaginative literature In this book Moevs offers the first sustained treatment of the metaphysical picture that grounds and motivates the Comedy and the relation between those metaphysics and Dante's poetics Moevs arrives at the radical conclusion that Dante believed that all of what we perceive as reality the spatio temporal world is in fact a creation or projection of conscious being Armed with this new understanding Moevs is able to shed light on a series of perennial issues in the interpretation of the Comedy

Yoga, Meditation, and Mysticism Kenneth Rose, 2016-09-08 Contemplative experience is central to Hindu yoga traditions Buddhist meditation practices and Catholic mystical theology and despite doctrinal differences it expresses itself in suggestively similar meditative landmarks in each of these three meditative systems In Yoga

Meditation and Mysticism Kenneth Rose shifts the dominant focus of contemporary religious studies away from tradition specific studies of individual religious traditions communities and practices to examine the contemplative universals that arise globally in meditative experience Through a comparative exploration of the itineraries detailed in the contemplative manuals of Theravada Buddhism Patanjali Yoga and Catholic mystical theology Rose identifies in each tradition a moment of sharply focused awareness that marks the threshold between immersion in mundane consciousness and contemplative insight As concentration deepens the meditator steps through this threshold onto a globally shared contemplative itinerary which leads through a series of virtually identical stages to mental stillness and insight Rose argues that these contemplative universals familiar to experienced contemplatives in multiple traditions point to a common spiritual mental and biological heritage Pioneering the exploration of contemplative practice and experience with a comparative perspective that ranges over multiple religious traditions religious studies philosophy neuroscience and the cognitive science of religion this book is a landmark contribution to the fields of contemplative practice and religious studies
