Schafer, Richard W. Myers, 2022-01-01 Policing in the US and many western nations is in an era of crisis facing extensive calls for reformation and change This edited book outlines the major challenges and changes needed to achieve a more stable future for the policing profession and police organizations The chapters come from innovative police leaders and officers as well as academics with subject matter expertise to provide insight into how reform can be done with the police It focusses on how leaders should understand and approach their role during times of instability and uncertainty It starts with an examination of how policing reached this state of crisis and discusses some interviews conducted with police leaders particularly chiefs as agents of change and reform This is followed by chapters from several veteran police leaders and personnel describing some of the factors that brought policing to this critical time of change and reform how has policing evolved in the late 20th and early 21st centuries and how that impacts the current environment and some potential strategies to create meaningful change while considering unintended consequences The following chapters from academics seek to define paths that policing can take toward needed changes that will increase legitimacy trust and equality of policing services It speaks to students academics and professionals interested in police organization and administration police leadership and contemporary issues in policing and criminal justice Comparative Criminal Justice Jospeter M. Mbuba, 2023-04-17 As the world becomes increasingly globalized a shared understanding and appreciation of the various aspects and approaches of criminal justice becomes imperative Examining nineteen countries purposefully selected to ensure not only broad geographic distribution but also cultural and religious diversity political differentiation and historical experiences this book is a go to reference for comparative criminal justice studies human rights studies victimology gender studies anthropology and political science Divided into five parts this book includes chapters on Sub Saharan Africa East Asia and the Pacific Europe and Eurasia the Middle East and the western hemisphere Although each chapter represents a different country all chapters have similar thematic sections providing summaries of the wide array of policing practices exploring the different types of criminal procedure used across the world and recognizing the many methods that different societies use to sanction criminal behavior among their citizens The Complexities of Police Corruption Marilyn Corsianos, 2012-08-31 The Complexities of Police Corruption provides a comprehensive examination of the role of gender as it relates to police corruption crime control and policing as an institution Author Marilyn Corsianos examines different forms of corruption including some behaviors that are generally not recognized as corruption by police departments such as selective law enforcement racial profiling gender bias and other discriminatory police practices against marginalized populations The book also explores the role of police culture in preserving and defending misconduct and digs into the thorny question of why significantly fewer women are involved in police corruption Throughout the book excerpts from interviews with 32 former police offers illustrate the complex ways that gender construction is connected to police corruption and shows how policing as an institution creates corruption risks The Complexities of Police Corruption is a challenging and insightful book about the intersections between gender and corruption

Managing Policy and Reform in an Era of American Police Conflict Jack St. Hilaire, 2023-08-11 The Greek philosopher Socrates posed a guardian model that would protect his Athenian world the custodes watchmen yet mused who would guard them but themselves In The Republic Plato spoke favorably about the guardians of the republic they should be trusted to behave and perform their duties appropriately without oversight Half a millennium later the Roman satirist Juvenal proposed that men who feared their wives infidelity could neither trust them nor the guardians who guarded them Similarly James Madison opposed oppression through blind trust and thus conceptualized Madisonian Democracy Quis custodiet ipsos custodies Who will guard the guardians In an era of conflict with America s police and the communities they serve today s publicly expressed attitudes toward law enforcement often reflect Socrates dilemma and the concerns of Juvenal more than that of Plato s tributes Contemporary debates concerning the increase in violent crime and the need for fundamental changes to American policing reached a new intensity and stalemate with the death of George Floyd in Minneapolis in May 2020 Police officers shot and killed 999 people in 2019 and 1021 people in 2020 in the United States 2020 was also one of the deadliest years for law enforcement with 264 officers killed the highest since 1974 In the first six months of 2021 523 civilians were shot and killed by officers Numerous active and former police officers face criminal charges for the January 6 United States Capitol Attack in Washington DC in 2021 Many current and former employees of the U S Border Patrol were discovered to be members of a Facebook group that posted racist and anti immigration content Sixty current members were found to have committed misconduct by posting explicit and violent messages mocking migrants and threatening lawmakers on the site Communities are now hiring civilians to high positions in the police department s command staff justifying the need to improve deteriorating community relations For the first time in its 27 years of measuring confidence in the police in the United States Gallup found that most American adults do not trust law enforcement This book investigates and exposes the complex challenges facing law enforcement leaders and government officials with police reform policies and standards police accreditation and police legitimacy in the eyes of the community Through informative and educational discussions with law enforcement leaders from various agencies professional police organizations and academic researchers the book qualitatively evaluates individual autonomy organizational culture and political environments which influence strategic decisions made on policy and reform efforts by law enforcement officials in the United States within the milieu of national police accreditation

Organizational Change in an Urban Police Department Brenda J. Bond-Fortier, 2020-01-30 This in depth case study of a mid sized police department captures the dynamics struggles and successes of police change revealing the positive organizational and community outcomes that resulted from a persistent drive to reinvent public safety and community relationships The police profession in the United States faces a legitimacy problem It is critical that police are prepared to change constantly be adaptive and adopt openness to self reflection and external comparison moving beyond their comfort zone to overcome the inevitable cultural structural and political obstacles Using previously unpublished longitudinal data examining a 25 year period Bond Fortier offers a rich account of the complexity of police management and change within one particular mid sized city Lowell Massachusetts The multidisciplinary lens applied provides crucial insights into how and why police organizations respond to a changing environment set certain goals and make decisions about how to achieve those goals The book analyzes the community and organizational forces that stimulated change in the Lowell Police Department describes the changes that enabled the department to achieve national model status and builds a nexus between influencing forces interdisciplinary theory and the creation of an adaptive 21st century police organization Organizational Change in an Urban Police Department Innovating to Reform is essential reading for academics and students in criminal justice criminology organizational studies public administration sociology political science and public policy programs as well as government executives crime policy analysts and public and private sector managers and leaders engaged in professional development and leadership courses
