All Loves Excelling The Saints Knowledge Of Christs Love Puritan Paperbacks:

All Loves Excelling John Bunyan, 2020-02 All Loves Excelling is John Bunyan's sermon on Ephesians 3:17-18. That ye may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge. It was first titled The Saints Knowledge of Christ's Love and is worthy of being ranked alongside Sibbes and deals with a much neglected subject area. The subject matter of this work which was first preached is greatly needed today. On the one hand, experiences of the Spirit are being claimed from which the glory of the redeemer and the wonder of his love are quite absent while on the other, an almost total attention to the understanding and practising of scripture truth is having the effect of marginalising the experiential element in true spiritual knowledge. Bunyan's description of Christ's love to believers and how they ought to know it cuts in both the above mentioned directions. From some 440 Bible references, he shows how knowing Christ's love is the message of Scripture and also the essence of heaven partly possessed and expressed on earth. Those who know it are rich beyond measure and they are the people who sweeten the churches and bring glory to God and to religion.

The Saint's Knowledge of Christ's Love John Bunyan, 2008-08-08 John Bunyan's The Saints Knowledge of Christ's Love or The Unsearchable Riches of Christ 1692 is an exposition of Ephesians 3:18-19 concerning the love of Christ. While preaching Christian values, Bunyan asserts that the scope of Christ's love encompasses all believers. Those who repent and regret their sins are covered in the blessings of the Father and the Son.

The Saints' Knowledge of Christ's Love, Or, the Unsearchable Riches of Christ John Bunyan, 2014-09-12 John Bunyan (28 November 1628 – 31 August 1688) was an English Christian writer and preacher famous for writing The Pilgrim's Progress. Though he was a Reformed Baptist in the Church of England, he is remembered with a Lesser Festival on 30 August and on the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church USA on August 29. As his popularity and notoriety grew, Bunyan increasingly became a target for slander and libel; he was described as a witch, a Jesuit, a highwayman and was said to have mistresses and multiple wives. In 1658, aged 30, he was arrested for preaching at Eaton Socon and indicted for preaching without a licence. He continued preaching, however, and did not suffer imprisonment until November 1660 when he was taken to the County gaol in Silver Street, Bedford. In that same year, Bunyan married his second wife, Elizabeth, by whom he had two more children, Sarah and Joseph. The Restoration of the monarchy by Charles II of England began Bunyan's persecution as England returned to Anglicanism. Meeting houses were quickly closed and all citizens were required to attend their Anglican parish church. It became punishable by law to conduct divine service except in accordance with the ritual of the church or for one not in Episcopal orders to address a congregation. Thus, John Bunyan no longer had that freedom to preach which he had enjoyed under the Puritan Commonwealth. He was arrested on 12 November 1660 whilst preaching privately in Lower Samsell by Harlington, Bedfordshire, 10 miles south of Bedford.
