Boyd, Don Thorsen, 2018-11-06 This introductory textbook presents Christian philosophical and theological approaches to ethics Combining their expertise in philosophy and theology the authors explain the beliefs values and practices of various Christian ethical viewpoints addressing biblical teachings as well as traditional ethical theories that contribute to informed moral decision making Each chapter begins with Words to Watch and includes a relevant case study on a vexing ethical issue such as caring for the environment human sexuality abortion capital punishment war and euthanasia End of chapter reflection questions illustrations and additional information tables are also included Christian Environmentalism and Human Responsibility in the 21st Century Katherine M. Quinsey, 2023-11-16 Christian Environmentalism and Human Responsibility in the 21st Century comprises original scholarly essays and creative works exploring the implications of Christian environmentalism through literary and cultural criticism and creative reflection The volume draws on a flourishing recent body of Christian ecocriticism and environmental activity incorporating both practical ethics and environmental spirituality but with particular emphasis on the notion of human responsibility It discusses responsibility in its dual sense as both the recognized cause of environmental destruction and the ethical imperative of accountability to the nonhuman environment The book crosses boundaries between traditional scholarly and creative reflection through a global range of topics African oral tradition Ohio artists off the grid immigrant self metaphors of land and sea iconic writers from Milton to O Connor to Atwood and Indigenous Canadian models for listening to the nonhuman Mother of us all In its incorporation of academic and creative pieces from scholars and creative artists across North America this volume shows how environmental work of its nature and necessity crosses traditional academic and community boundaries In both form and orientation this collection speaks to the most urgent intellectual physical social and spiritual needs of the present day This book will appeal to scholars researchers and upper level students interested in the relationship between religion and environment ethics animal welfare poetry memoir and post secularism Earthkeeping and Character Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2019-11-19 Addressing a topic of growing and vital concern this book asks us to reconsider how we think about the natural world and our place in it Steven Bouma Prediger brings ecotheology into conversation with the emerging field of environmental virtue ethics exploring the character traits and virtues required for Christians to be responsible keepers of the earth and to flourish in the challenging decades to come He shows how virtue ethics can enrich Christian environmentalism helping readers think and act in ways that rightly value creation Ecotheology Kiara Jorgenson, Alan G. Padgett, 2020-09-24 Just as God loves creation so are Christians called to care for it Now amid the accelerating degradation of our global environment that task has taken on greater urgency than ever How should Christians respond to the climate crisis and widespread pollution of earth's shared commons water and air How might Christian communities think about human responsibility to other living creatures In roundtable format Richard Bauckham Cynthia Moe Lobeda Steven Bouma Prediger and John F Haught navigate the layers of what it means for humans to live in right relationship with earth's lifecosystems After each contributor's essay the other three contributors issue a response including points of disagreement and questions thereby modeling for readers productive and respectful dialogue The ecumenical conversations in Ecotheology represent the diverse viewpoints of contributors theological and practical commitments exploring creation care through a variety of frameworks including natural science biblical studies systematic theology and Christian ethics Ecoflourishing and Virtue Steven Bouma-Prediger, Nathan Carson, 2023-11-10 This book brings together the interdisciplinary reflections of Christian scholars and poets to explore how ecological virtues can foster the flourishing of our home planet in the face of unprecedented environmental change and devastation Its central questions are What virtues are needed for us to be better caretakers of our home planet What vices must we extinguish if we are to flourish on the earth

What is the connection between such virtues and vices and the flourishing of all creatures Each contribution offers insight on ecological virtue ethical questions through disciplinary lenses ranging from biology geology and economics to literature theology and philosophy The chapters feature the legacy and lessons of senior scholars reflecting on a lifetime of earthkeeping work highlight global concerns and perspectives and include compelling poetic reflections Focusing on the way in which human vices and virtues drive so many of our ecological problems and solutions the volume engages timely issues of environmental importance such as environmental racism interfaith dialogue ecological philosophies of work and economics marine pollution ecological despair hope and humility encouraging fresh reflection and action It will be of interest to those working in theology and religious studies philosophy ethics and environmental studies Plundering Eden G. P. Wagenfuhr, 2020-05-22 Christian ecotheology runs the risk of making God himself a resource for human exploitation as a means to species survival The world of climate change soil depletion and mass species extinction reveals a frightening conclusion humans act as cosmic parasites The problem is not with the world talk of climate change blames the symptoms displayed by the victim but with human epistemology Humans are systematically incapable of rightly perceiving reality and so must socially construct reality The end of this epistemological problem is necessary ecological devastation by the development of civilization In Plundering Eden Wagenfuhr traces ecological problems to their root cause in the broken imagination and argues that reconciliation with God the Creator through Jesus Christ is the only means to ecological healing through a renewed kenotic imagination expressed in the creation of an alternate environment that reveals the kingdom of God the ekklesia Ecological Moral Character Nancy M. Rourke, 2024-03-01 An ecological model through which we can imagine Aquinas vision of moral character The images we use to think about moral character are powerful They inform our understanding of the moral virtues and the ways in which moral character develops However this aspect of virtue ethics is rarely discussed In Ecological Moral Character Nancy M Rourke creates an ecological model through which we can form images of moral character She integrates concepts of ecology with Aquinas vision and describes the dynamics of a moral character in terms of the processes and functions that take place in an ecosystem The virtues the passions the will and the intellect are also described in terms of this model Ecological Moral Character asks readers to choose deliberately the models we use to imagine moral character and offers this ecological virtue model as a vital framework for a period of environmental crisis Teaching and Learning Religion Davina C. Lopez, Thomas Pearson, 2023-09-07 Eugene V Gallagher and Patricia O Connell have influenced a generation of religious studies professors through their leadership in Wabash Center teaching workshops In this book contributors pay tribute to their influence and build on their insights in short essays focused on three perennial themes Place Plan and Persona Firstly the book considers how negotiating your institutional context is essential to effective teaching Reflections include essays on places of learning the interaction between person and place and the online teaching environment Secondly the contributors explore how effective teaching requires intentional self critical design of students intellectual experience from the arc of the course to the scope and purpose of the curriculum Topics include planning for playfulness teaching strangeness and strengthening student engagement In the final section on persona topics include humour in the classroom authenticity in the teaching profession team teaching and ungrading This book contributes to the scholarship of teaching and learning in religious studies and higher education by engaging Gallagher and Killen s insights and by exploring a range of perspectives on core and enduring pedagogical concepts and questions
