DISCUSSION GUIDE

READING BANNED & CHALLENGED BOOKS

WHITE BIRD BY R. J. PALACIO

R. J. Palacio's unforgettable graphic novel debut is a story about the power of kindness and unrelenting courage in a time of war.

- At the beginning of the prologue, there is a quote by George Santayana: "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it." What is this a cautionary signal? The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum has recordings of survivors sharing their memories. Why is it important to listen to their stories? Young people of today have no "memory" of this tragic event. How do books like White Bird offer them memory?
- Grandmother tells Julian, "There were dark times, but what has stayed with me the most... is not darkness, but the light." What is the darkest part of Grandmother's story? What is the "light" that she remembers? How has knowing so the "light" given Grandmother hope? What message about kindness and courage is she authorizing to convey?
- Sara's father wants to leave France, but her mother thinks they are okay in the free zone. At what point does it become necessary for them to leave? How does Sara's father try to prepare her for their escape? Discuss how and why Sara becomes separated from her family.
- Discuss the significance of Sara's childhood. Who is the boy that rescues Sara and her childhood? Explore why the other children leave her. Why is Sarabene, the mothering the students give her, an especially cruel lesson? Why do you think the children are cruel to Julian? Why are humans cruel to those who are different from them? Is Sara's ignoring Julian as bad as bullying him? Why or why not?
- What is anti-Semitism? Discuss Sara's first experience with anti-Semitism. She says she was attacked "but for something I have done, but for something I am." Compare Sara's experience with anti-Semitism and Julian's experience with the bullies.
