Al Ghazali On Vigilance And Self Examination Ghazali Series:

On Vigilance & Self-examination Ghazzālī, 2015 The 38th chapter of the Revival of the Religious Sciences this treatise follows on from Al Ghazali on Intention Sincerity Truthfulness Here Ghazali focuses on the different stations of steadfastness in religion murabaha vigilance and self examination being its cornerstones As in all his writings Ghazali bases his arguments on the Qur'an the example of the Prophet and the sayings of numerous scholars and Sufis As relevant today as it was in the 11th century this discourse will be of interest to anyone concerned with ethics and moral philosophy Modernity and the Ideals of Arab-Islamic and Western-Scientific Philosophy A. Z. Obiedat, 2022-07-08 This is the first study to compare the philosophical systems of secular scientific philosopher Mario Bunge 1919 2020 and Moroccan Islamic philosopher Taha Abd al Rahman b 1945 In their efforts to establish the philosophical underpinnings of an ideal modernity these two great thinkers speak to the same elements of the human condition despite their opposing secular and religious worldviews While the differences between Bunge's critical realist epistemology and materialist ontology on the one hand and Taha's spiritualist ontology and revelational mystical epistemology on the other are fundamental there is remarkable common ground between their scientific and Islamic versions of humanism Both call for an ethics of prosperity combined with social justice and both criticize postmodernism and religious conservatism The aspiration of this book is to serve as a model for future dialogue between holders of Western and Islamic worldviews in mutual pursuit of modernity's best case scenario Mindfulness Techniques and Practices in Islamic Psychotherapy Nazila Isgandarova, 2024-12-23 Mindfulness Techniques and Practices in Islamic Psychotherapy is a guide for Muslim spiritual care providers psychologists psychiatrists psychotherapists and others who use spiritual and religious concepts values and rituals as novel interventions to offer culturally appropriate mental health services Chapters lay out the practice of muraqabah as a strategy for addressing mental and emotional disturbances such as depression anxiety personality disorders attention deficit disorders and more Using hermeneutical data Mindfulness Techniques and Practices in Islamic Psychotherapy presents the processes and ethics of the muraqabah technique in Islamic spiritual care and psychotherapy God and the Knowledge of Reality Thomas Molnar, 2021-09-28 Written simply yet comprehensively Molnar's analysis of the history of philosophy and false mysticism leads him to conclude that a return to a moderate realism will save the philosophical enterprise from a series of epistemological and societal absolutes that are embodied in contemporary rationalism and mysticism alike Issues that have been systematically excluded from discourse will have to be reintroduced into the discussion of person and providence Molnar divided the philosophical systems into two groups according to their vision of God and consequently of reality One group removes God from the human scope therefore rendering the world unreal unknowable and meaningless The second group holds that God is immanent in the human soul thereby emphasizing the human attainment of divine status and reducing the extra mental world to a condition of utter imperfection Either way the result is a pseudo mysticism a denial of the creaturely status of human beings What is most needed Molnar claims is a theory of knowledge whose ideal is not fusion but distinction between God and Man subject and object the self and the society By thus raising the question of philosophy over against magic Molnar seeks to awaken the reader from neo dogmatic assumptions and restore speculative thought to its traditional place Al-Ghazālī on Condemnation of Pride and Self-admiration Abu Hamid Al-Ghazali, Ghazzālī, 2018 The Condemnation of Pride and Self Admiration is the first translation into a European language of chapter twenty nine of The Revival of the Religious Sciences a monumental work of classical Islam written by the greatest theologian mystic of Islam Abu Hamid al Ghazali d 1111 Perhaps the most important chapter in the whole of the Revival The Condemnation of Pride and Self Admiration delves into the fundamental spiritual ailments and major impediments of the soul namely pride and self admiration Ghazali offers readers an in depth analysis of how and why pride and self admiration are so harmful to a person s soul and outlines methods of recognizing and subsequently healing these diseases of the heart The key ingredient in this cure Ghazali explains is the cultivation of humility which results from an increasing awareness of one s lowliness and essential nothingness before God An in depth and very lucid analysis of the major vices and virtues central to all religions Al-Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence Abu Hamid Al-Ghazali, 2019-06 Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence is the thirty fourth chapter of the Revival of the Religious Sciences Ihya Ulum al Din which is widely regarded as the greatest work of Muslim spirituality In Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence Abu Hamid al Ghazali considers two themes dear to Islamic devotional literature poverty and abstinence Taking as his example the Prophet s love for the poor Ghazali explains that poverty is not simply an accidental state of destitution that might befall anyone but rather an inner acceptance of the Will of God and a form of abstinence for His sake Thus the life of poverty described by Ghazali in Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence refers to what every devoted follower of the Prophet is meant to adopt whatever his or her outer state may be In this new edition the Islamic Texts Society has included the translation of Abu Hamid al Ghazali s own Introduction to the Revival of the Religious Sciences which gives the reasons that caused him to write the work the structure of the whole of the Revival and places each of the chapters in the context of the others Al-Ghazali on Proper Conduct for the Recitation of the Qur'an: Book VIII of the Revival of the Religious Sciences Abu Hamid Al-Ghazali, 2020-03-28 Al Ghazali on Proper Conduct for the Recitation of the Qur an is the eighth chapter of Abu Hamid al Ghazali s magnum opus the Revival of the Religious Sciences Ihya ulum al din a monumental work of classical Islam written by the renowned theologian mystic Abu Hamid al Ghazali d 1111 This chapter of the Revival deals with the fundamental importance of the Qur an and its role in an individual s salvation After establishing the pre eminence of the Qur an and of those who are devoted to its recitation Ghazali outlines the outer proper conduct for its recitation the condition of the reciter the quantity of recitation properly apportioning the Qur an method of writing measured recitation crying taking into account the rights of verses what to say at the beginning of one s recitation reciting aloud and beautifying one s recitation and embellishing it by modulating one s voice Ghazali then proceeds to identify the inner actions

while reciting the Qur'an understanding the grandeur and stature of the Speech reverence for the Speaker presence of mind and not letting one's mind wander reflection deeper understanding ridding oneself of obstacles to understanding specification being affected ascension and divestment In the fourth and final chapter Ghazali deals with an issue which continues to be a source of contention today the problem of the permissibility of generating new interpretations of the Qur'an Ghazali convincingly argues that a proper engagement with the Qur'an is not restricted by the boundaries of earlier interpretations This volume also includes a translation of Imam Ghazali's own Introduction to the Revival of the Religious Sciences which gives the reasons that caused him to write the work the structure of the whole of the Revival and which places each of the chapters in the context of the others
