Global Voices on Biblical Equality Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, Mimi Haddad, 2008-08-18 Global Voices on Biblical Equality is a fresh look at the contextualizing of gender equality throughout the world. Biblical equality is a burgeoning global reform movement led by scholars and leaders not only in North America but also on every continental landmass in the world. What inroads is biblical equality making around the globe? What is its appeal? What still needs reform? How is biblical equality transforming each culture? In this book, female and male writers who are ethnically part of every continent explore the contextual challenges, successes, and adaptations of engaging the biblical text on gender and ministry. The contributors write on Asia, India, and China and Asian America, Korean America. They treat Africa, Zimbabwe, and African America. Writers address Indigenous America, Native America, and Latin America, Hispanic America, and Brazilian America. Writers also discuss Western Europe, Australia, and North America. The editors of this volume are Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, and Mimi Haddad. Other contributors include Ellen Alexander Beulah Wood, Cecilia Yau, Matthew D. Kim, Constantine M. Murefu, Darin Vincent Poullard, Sandra Gatlin, Whitley Awilda Gonzalez Tejera, John Runyon, Eliana Marques Runyon, Elke Werner, Roland Werner, Kevin Giles, and Roberta Hestenes.

Women and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Kudzai Biri, Sophia Chirongoma, 2022-07-07 The chapters in this volume foreground the ambivalent role of religion and culture when it comes to African women's health and well-being. Reflecting on the three major religions in Africa—i.e., African Indigenous Religions, Christianity, and Islam—the authors illustrate how religious beliefs and practices can either enhance or hinder women's holistic progress and development. With a specific focus on Zimbabwean women's experiences of religion and culture, the volume discusses how African Indigenous Religions, Christianity, and Islam tend to privilege men and understate the value of women in Africa. Adopting diverse theological, ideological, and political positions, contributors to this volume restate the fact that the key teachings of different religions, often suppressed due to patriarchal influences, are a potent resource in the quest for gender justice. In sync with the goals for gender justice and women empowerment envisioned in the United Nations Agenda 2030 and Africa Agenda 2063, the contributors advocate for gender-inclusive and life-enhancing interpretations of religious and cultural traditions in Africa.

Religion and Social Marginalization in Zimbabwe Togarasei, Lovemore, Bishau, David, Chitando, Ezra, 2020-07-13 Marginalization means being disregarded, ostracized, harassed, disliked, persecuted, or generally looked down upon. Marginalized people often include women and children, the poor, the disabled, sexual, religious, or ethnic minorities, refugees. The marginalized are those who are socially, politically, culturally, or economically excluded from mainstream society. In history, the Church in Zimbabwe has played a role in improving the lives of the marginalized but what is religion especially Christianity doing for the marginalized now Although religion is also implicated in marginalisation the contributions in this volume did not address this angle as they focused on the role that religion can and should play to fight marginalization The chapters come from two conferences 2012 2014 that were held under the flag of ATISCA The contributions have been updated to include later developments and publications Politics, Religion and Hate Speech in Zimbabwe Francis Machingura, Nomatter Sande, 2023-12-16 This book is empirically grounded on Zimbabwe and looks at hate speech as a bad omen for any society family nation and organisation Hate speech divides and kills any peace unity tolerance inclusivity philosophy race and geographical area sacred places of worship freedoms identities culture unity and development in any space It is not a good recipe for both animate and inanimate It is never a solution to be applied in any geographical location Hate speech conflict and violence usually go together The book clearly shows that hate speech must never be tolerated in any religion space both private and public spaces scriptures society and nation It is poisonous and manifests in different forms such as language verbal or electronic discriminations beliefs practices laws censorship graffiti and even physical assault

Christian Green, Faith Kabata, Fortune Sibanda, 2022-12-31 The Covid 19 pandemic was global in its spread and reach as well as in its medical social and economic effects In many respects the global effort to flatten the curve produced a flattening of experience around the world and a striking coincidence of similar experiences in countries the world over The identity simultaneity and uniformity of experience were also manifest in common concerns at the intersection of law and religion in many nations around the world including Africa The lockdowns and closure of religious worship centres churches mosques and religious organisations of all sorts raised questions of freedom of religion and the related concern for freedom of assembly along with concerns about the relation of religion to science and public health religious channels of communication and religious provision of social services After all health communications and social services are all areas in which African religious organisations play key roles Potential tensions around these issues raised further considerations about the nature of religion state relations the status of religious authority and whether religious and state actors would work together or at odds in addressing the Covid 19 pandemic
