'Die Groot 5'

Eendag in die sonnige savanne, was daar vyf spesiale vriende, die Afrika Groot Vyf. Leeu, die dapper koning, het 'n brul so sterk soos die wind.

Olifant, die grootste, het met sy lang slurp water gespuit. Renoster, met sy stewige horing, het rustig in die modder gerol. Buffel, met sy groot horings, het lekker in die gras gewei. En luiperd, die vinnige jagter, het saggies deur die bosse beweeg. Hulle het almal saam gespeel en die klein diertjies van die savanne beskerm. En so het hulle die beste vriende in die hele wildtuin geword.

Antonya's Baby Shower on Camperdown Road is by Bahamian A L Major The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

The Oral-Style South African Short Story in English Craig MacKenzie, 1999 This study deals with a particular kind of short story in South African English literature a kind of story variously called the fireside tale tall tale skaz narrative or the term used here the oral style story Most famously exemplified in the Oom Schalk Lourens narratives of Herman Charles Bosman the oral style story has its roots in the hunting tale and camp fire yarn of the nineteenth century and has dozens of exponents in South African literature most of them long forgotten Here this neglect has been addressed A W Drayson's Tales at the Outspan 1862 provides a point of departure and is followed by discussions of works by William Charles Scully Percy FitzPatrick Ernest Glanville Perceval Gibbon Francis Carey Slater Pauline Smith and Aegidius Jean Blignaut all of whom used the oral style story genre In the work of Herman Charles Bosman however the South African oral style story comes into its own In his Oom Schalk Lourens figure is invested all of the complexity and double voicedness that was latent and largely dormant in the earlier works Bosman demonstrates his sophistication particularly in his metafictional use of the oral style story The study concludes with a discussion of the use of oral forms in the work of more recent black writers among them Bessie Head Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Njabulo Ndebele

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig MacKenzie, 2010 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945
