An Early Javanese Code Of Muslim Ethics:

An Early Javanese Code of Muslim Ethics Gerardus Willebrordus Joannes Drewes, 1978 Islam in the Indonesian World Azyumardi Azra, 2006 The early history of Islam in Indonesian world is bewilderingly complex not only in the context of the spread of Islam in the area but also in the terms of its institutional formation This book therefore discusses such themes as the early introduction of Islam to the Indonesian archipelago the development of Islamic learning educational and legal institutions Not least important the book also reveals the religious intellectual and political relations between Islam in the archipelago with that of the Arabian world Professor Azyumardi Azra is a brilliant authority in Islam in Indonesia No one interested in Indonesian Islam can afford to be without this book Professor Dr M C Ricklefs Department of History National University of Singapore Author of acclaimed book A History of Modern Indonesia since c 1200 third edition 2002 This well researched book should be a required reading for anyone who would like to comprehend the dynamic of Islam in Indonesian and in Southeast Asia as a whole Professor DR Taufik Abdullah Sejarahwan and member of Akademi Ilmu Pengetahuan Indonesia AIPI Mizan Pustaka Religion Islam Refrention Language Contact and Change in the Austronesian World Tom Dutton, Darrell T. Tryon, 2010-12-14 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing Muslim and Catholic Pilgrimage Practices Albertus Bagus Laksana, 2016-04-29 Exploring the distinctive nature and role of local pilgrimage traditions among Muslims and Catholics Muslim and Catholic Pilgrimage Practices draws particularly on south central Java Indonesia In this area the hybrid local Muslim pilgrimage culture is shaped by traditional Islam the Javano Islamic sultanates and the Javanese culture with its strong Hindu Buddhist heritage This region is also home to a vibrant Catholic community whose identity formation has occurred in a way that involves complex engagements with Islam as well as Javanese culture In this respect local pilgrimage tradition presents itself as a rich milieu in which these complex engagements have been taking place between Islam Catholicism and Javanese culture Employing a comparative theological and phenomenological analysis this book reveals the deeper religio cultural and theological import of pilgrimage practice in the identity formation and interaction among Muslims and Catholics in south central Java In a wider context it also sheds light on the larger dynamics of the complex encounter between Islam Christianity and local cultures The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 3, The Eastern Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries David O. Morgan, Anthony Reid, 2010-11-04 This volume traces the second great expansion of the Islamic world eastwards from the eleventh century to the eighteenth As the faith crossed cultural boundaries the trader and the mystic became as important as the soldier and the administrator Distinctive Islamic idioms began to emerge from other great linguistic traditions apart from Arabic especially in Turkish Persian Urdu Swahili Malay and Chinese The Islamic world transformed and absorbed new influences As the essays in this collection demonstrate three major features distinguish the time and place from both earlier and modern experiences of Islam Firstly the steppe tribal peoples of central Asia had a decisive impact on the Islamic lands Secondly Islam expanded along the trade routes of the Indian Ocean and the South China Sea Thirdly Islam interacted with Asian spirituality including Hinduism Sikhism Buddhism Taoism and Shamanism It was during this period that Islam became a truly world religion Islam: Essays on Scripture, Thought and Society Street, Peter Riddell, 2021-09-20 This volume comprises 17 articles on various aspects of Islamic Studies brought together to celebrate the scholarly work of Professor A H Johns which spans Islam of the medieval Middle East and Islam in Southeast Asia The first part of the book contains 9 articles which deal with Islam as a scriptural religion concerned to revere and interpret the Qur'an and promote the spread and doctrinal purity of Islam Subjects included are Qur'anic exegesis problems of translating the Qur'an into Chinese and analyses of the theological reasoning used by Muslim scholars The second part of the book contains 8 articles which deal with Islam in Southeast Asia especially Javanese Islam and modern articulations of Islam inspired by Mu'ammad Abduh Subjects dealt with include the Islamisation of the Javanese Court and the impact of the journal al-Manār on religious discussion in the archipelago Writing the Past, Inscribing the Future Nancy K. Florida, 1995 Located at the juncture of literature history and anthropology Writing the Past Inscribing the Future charts a strategy of how one might read a traditional text of non Western historical literature in order to generate with it an opening for the future This book does so by taking seriously a haunting work of historical prophecy inscribed in the nineteenth century by a royal Javanese exile working through this writing of a colonized past to suggest the reconfiguration of the postcolonial future that this history itself apparently intends After introducing the colonial and postcolonial orientalist projects that would fix the meaning of traditional writing in Java Nancy K Florida provides a nuanced translation of this particular traditional history a history composed in poetry as the dream of a mysterious exile She then undertakes a richly textured reading of the poem that discloses how it manages to escape the fixing of tradition Adopting a dialogic strategy of reading Florida writes to extend as the work's Javanese author demands this history's prophetic potential into a more global register Babad Jaka Tingkir the historical prophecy that Writing the Past Inscribing the Future translates and reads is uniquely suited for such a study Composing an engaging history of the emergence of Islamic power in central Java around the turn of the sixteenth century Babad Jaka Tingkir was written from the vantage of colonial exile to contest the more dominant dynastic historical traditions of nineteenth century court literature Florida reveals how this history's episodic form and focus on characters at the margins of the social order work to disrupt the genealogical claims of conventional royal historiography thus prophetically to open the possibility of an alternative future

Readings on Islam in Southeast Asia Ahmad Ibrahim, Sharon Siddique, Yasmin Hussain, 1985 This volume of selected readings on Islam is a portrait of the Southeast Asian Islamic mosaic with emphasis on the contemporary period The collection of articles also serves to reflect the broad thematic interest of scholars not only indigenous and foreign but also Muslim and non Muslim who have contributed to an understanding of Islam in Southeast Asia Islamic Prayer Across the Indian Ocean Stephen Headley, David Parkin, 2018-10-24 In its attempt to squash the influence of animism and pantheism or polytheism and to promote the idea of the One and Only Absolute God Islam has come up against a tendency within itself to incorporate certain local religious traditions and practices This book shares that combination of universality and local particularity exploring this paradox and the contradictory tendencies contained in it Durga's Mosque Stephen Headley, 2004 Stephen Headley's new book explores contemporary religious change in the Surakarta region of Central Java In his analysis of the Durga ritual complex the author sheds light on one of the most unusual court traditions to have survived in an era of deepening Islamisation
