McDaniel, 2011-11-07 Cattoi and McDaniel present a selection of articles on the role of the body and the spiritual senses our transfigured channels of sensory perceptions in the context of spiritual practice The volume investigates this theme across a variety of different religious traditions within Christianity Hinduism Buddhism and Daoism The Mysteries Joseph Campbell, 1978 Essays by Julius Baum C G Jung C Ker nyi Hans Leisegang Paul Masson Oursel Fritz Meier Jean de Menasce Georges Nagel Walter F Otto Max Pulver Hugo Rahner Paul Schmitt and Walter Wili The Christ who Embraces Jacob Joseph, 2024-10-28 Jacob Joseph's book The Christ who Embraces An Orthodox Theology of Margins explores the intersection of Orthodox Christian mission and caste dynamics among St Thomas Syrian Orthodox Christians in India It defines a liturgical touch or embrace in the context of untouchability where people identify as equal without discrimination reflecting the inseparable unity of Christ's transcendental divine and immanent human nature Three Hundred Years of Decadence Robert Azzarello, 2019-04-09 New Orleans's reputation as a decadent city stems in part from its environmental precariousness its Francophilia its Afro Caribbean connections its Catholicism and its litany of alleged vices encompassing prostitution miscegenation homosexuality and any number of the seven deadly sins An evocative work of cultural criticism Robert Azzarello's Three Hundred Years of Decadence argues that decadence can convey a more nuanced meaning than simple decay or decline conceived in physical social or moral terms Instead within New Orleans literature decadence possesses a complex even paradoxical relationship with concepts like beauty and health progress and technological advance Azzarello presents the concept of decadence along with its perception and the uneasy social relations that result as a suggestive avenue for decoding the long shifting story of New Orleans and its position in the transatlantic world By analyzing literary works that span from the late seventeenth century to contemporary speculations about the city's future Azzarello uncovers how decadence often names a transfiguration of values in which ideas about supposed good and bad cannot maintain their stability and end up morphing into one another These evolving representations of a decadent New Orleans which Azzarello traces with attention to both details of local history and insights from critical theory reveal the extent to which the city functions as a contact zone for peoples and cultures from Europe Africa and the Americas Drawing on a deep and understudied archive of New Orleans literature Azzarello considers texts from multiple genres fiction poetry drama song and travel writing including many written in languages other than English His analysis includes such works of transcription and translation as George Washington Cable's Creole Slave Songs and Mary Haas's Tunica Texts which he places in dialogue with canonical and recent works about the city as well as with neglected texts like Ludwig von Reizenstein's German language serial The Mysteries of New Orleans and Charles Chesnutt's novel Paul Marchand F M C With its careful analysis and focused scope Three Hundred Years of Decadence uncovers the immense significance historically politically and aesthetically that literary imaginings of a decadent New Orleans hold for understanding the city's position as a multicultural transatlantic contact zone
