Phillips,2015-05-13 Hailey Lambert came home for the holidays to help her father. Instead eight years later she is forced to face all that was left unspoken between her and high school crush Nate. After eight years Hailey is back in Caseville Michigan. Just months after her mother's death her siblings want to put their father in a nursing home and rent out the family farm. If that wasn't enough the prospective tenant is Nate the high school crush she left behind the day after they acted on their mutual attraction. After high school Nate Jenkins planned to leave small town behind but life dealt him a different hand of cards to play. He's now back in Caseville raising his daughter and running his family's diner. His daughter's speech disorder has been improved by therapeutic horse riding and if he can lease the old Lambert farm he can get her a horse of her own. The only standing in the way is Hailey the same woman who left him eight years ago without even saying goodbye. Can they get over all that's unspoken between them.
