Brother Im Dying Vintage Contemporaries:

Brother, I'm Dying Edwidge Danticat, 2008-09-09 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Autobiography A National Book Award Finalist A New York Times Notable Book A Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction Book of the Century From the age of four award winning writer Edwidge Danticat came to think of her uncle Joseph as her second father when she was placed in his care after her parents left Haiti for America And so she was both elated and saddened when at twelve she joined her parents and youngest brothers in New York City As Edwidge made a life in a new country adjusting to being far away from so many who she loved she and her family continued to fear for the safety of those still in Haiti as the political situation deteriorated In 2004 they entered into a terrifying tale of good people caught up in events beyond their control Brother I m Dying is an astonishing true life epic told on an intimate scale by one of our finest writers

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat Jana Evans Braziel, Nadège T. Clitandre, 2021-01-28 Edwidge Danticat s prolific body of work has established her as one of the most important voices in 21st century literary culture Across such novels as Breath Eyes Memory Farming the Bones and short story collections such as Krik Krak and most recently Everything Inside essays and writing for children the Haitian American writer has throughout her oeuvre tackled important contemporary themes including racism imperialism anti immigrant politics and sexual violence With chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars this is the most up to date and in depth reference guide to 21st century scholarship on Edwidge Danticat s work The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat covers such topics as The full range of Danticat s writing from her novels and short stories to essays life writing and writing for children and young adults Major interdisciplinary scholarly perspectives including from establishing fields fields of literary studies Caribbean Studies Political Science Latin American Studies feminist and gender studies African Diaspora Studies and emerging fields such as Environmental Studies Danticat s literary sources and influences from Haitian authors such as Marie Chauvet Jacques Roumain and Jacques St phen Alexis to African American authors like Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison and Caribbean American writers Audre Lorde to Paule Marshall Known and unknown Historical moments in experiences of slavery and imperialism the consequence of internal and external migration and the formation of diasporic communities The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Danticat s work and key works of secondary criticism and an interview with the author as well as and essays by Danticat herself features characterizing the transformation of colonial forms of racial and sexual control into neocolonial reconfigurations. A result of systemic inequality and large scale historical events the patterns explored herein reveal the ways in which private relations can reflect national occurrences and the intimate can be brought under public scrutiny. Acknowledging the widespread effects of racial and sexual policing that persist in current legal economic and political infrastructures across the circum Caribbean can in turn bring to light permutations of resistance to the violent discriminations of the status quo. By drawing on colonial documents such as early law systems like the 1685 French Code Noir instated in Haiti the 1724 Code Noir in Louisiana and the 1865 Black Code in Mississippi in tandem with examples from twentieth century literature Policing Intimacy humanizes the effects of legal histories and leaves space for local particularities. By focusing on literary texts and variances in form and aesthetics Sciuto demonstrates the necessity of incorporating multiple stories histories and traumas into accounts of the past.

Policing Intimacy Jenna Grace Sciuto, 2021-04-22 In Policing Intimacy Law Sexuality and the Color Line in Twentieth Century Hemispheric American Literature author Jenna Grace Sciuto analyzes literary depictions of sexual policing of the color line across multiple spaces with diverse colonial histories Mississippi through William Faulkner s work Louisiana through Ernest Gaines s novels Haiti through the work of Marie Chauvet and Edwidge Danticat and the Dominican Republic through writing by Julia Alvarez Junot D az and Nelly Rosario This literature exposes the continuing coloniality that links depictions of US democracy with Caribbean dictatorships in the twentieth century revealing a set of interrelated

Edwidge Danticat Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2022-06-06 A comet in the mounting firmament of third world non white female writers Edwidge Danticat stands apart. An accomplished trilingual children's and YA author she is also an activist, poet and cinema writer and keynote speaker. Much of her work introduces the world to the cultural uniqueness of Haiti the first black republic and the elements of African heritage language and Vodou that continue to color all aspects of the island's art and self expression. This companion provides an in depth look into the world and writings of Danticat through A-Z entries. These entries cover both her works and the prevalent themes of her writing including colonialism slavery superstition adaptation dreams and coming of age. It also provides a biography of Danticat a list of 32 aphorisms from her fiction a guide to the names and histories of the real places in her fiction lesson planning aids and a robust glossary offering translations and definitions for the many Creole French Japanese Latin Spanish and Taino terms in Danticat's writing.

Narrating History, Home, and Diaspora Maia L. Butler, Joanna Davis-McElligatt, Megan Feifer, 2022-06-27 Winner of a 2023 Edited Collection Award from the South Atlantic Modern Language Association. Contributions by Cécile Accilien Maria Rice Bellamy Gwen Bergner Olga Blomgren Maia L Butler Isabel Caldeira Nadège T Clitandre Thadious M Davis Joanna Davis McElligatt Laura Dawkins Megan Feifer Delphine Gras Akia Jackson Tammie Jenkins Shewonda Leger Jennifer M Lozano Marion Christina Rohrleitner Thomas Rothe Erika V Serrato Lucia Stecher and Joyce White. Narrating History Home and Diaspora Critical Essays on Edwidge Danticat contains fifteen essays addressing how Edwidge Danticat's writing anthologizing and storytelling trace, re-construct and develop alternate histories narratives of nation building and conceptions of home and belonging. The prolific Danticat is renowned for novels collections of short fiction nonfiction and editorial writing. As her experimentation in form expands so does her force as a public intellectual. Danticat's literary representations political commentary and personal activism have proven vital to classroom and community work imagining radical futures. Among increasing anti immigrant sentiment and containment and rampant ecological volatility Danticat's contributions to public discourse art and culture deserve sustained critical attention. These essays offer essential perspectives to scholars public intellectuals and students interested in African diasporic Haitian Caribbean and transnational American literary studies This collection frames Danticat's work as an indictment of statelessness racialized and gendered state violence and the persistence of political and economic margins The first section of this volume The Other Side of the Water engages with Danticat's construction and negotiation of nation both in Haiti and the United States the broader diaspora and her own her family's and her fictional characters places within them The second section Welcoming Ghosts delves into the ever present specter of history and memory prominent themes found throughout Danticat's work From origin stories to broader Haitian histories this section addresses the underlying traumas involved when remembering the past and its relationship to the present The third section I Speak Out explores the imperative to speak paying particular attention to the narrative form with which such telling occurs The fourth and final section Create Dangerously contends with Haitians activism community building and the political and ecological climate of Haiti and its diaspora

Myth and Violence in the Contemporary Female Text Sanja Bahun-Radunović, V. G. Julie Rajan, 2011 How women artists and activists across the globe employ myth to communicate personal and historical experiences of violence is the central concern of this innovative collection Rather than compartmentalizing women's artistic production within generic or geographical boundaries the volume encompasses literary criticism discussion of film and art artwork autobiographical accounts and pieces of original creative writing thereby promulgating an inclusive way to approach literature and the arts

Neighbor-Homes Megan Jeanette Myers, 2025-08-21 Neighbor Homes Julia Alvarez and Edwidge Danticat Write Hispaniola and the Diaspora analyzes the work of two of the most acclaimed contemporary American and Caribbean authors for the first time in a single book Extending beyond scholarly approaches to home as a theoretical construct Neighbor Homes considers how Alvarez and Danticat inaugurate multiple spaces of belonging for their off and on island fictional characters for their diverse community of readers and for themselves Revealing a more complex and complete understanding of these Hispaniola rooted authors the project places Alvarez and Danticat into conversation at a time when the construction of a border wall and racist immigration laws confirm increasing anti Haitian sentiment in the Dominican Republic Neighbor Homes incorporates correspondence between the two writers to extrapolate diverse narrative representations of Hispaniola and to highlight various themes central to their work and social justice platforms including family relationships community building neighbor aesthetics statelessness and border solidarity Neighbor Homes will help interdisciplinary audiences read Danticat and Alvarez with a more critical eye so that they can more adeptly and profoundly understand Haiti the Dominican Republic and their respective diasporas This important study is an essential read for students and scholars of literature and social justice cultural studies history and politics as well as Caribbean Latinx and African diaspora literatures

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

The Migrant Maternal: Birthing New Lives Abroad Schultes Anna Kuroczycka,2016-10-01 This edited volume explores how and why immigrant refugee mothers experiences differ due to the challenges posed by the migration process but also what commonalities underline immigrant refugee mothers lived experiences This book will add to the field of women s studies the much needed discussion of how immigrant and refugee mothers lives are dependent on cultural environmental and socio economic circumstances The collection offers multiple perspectives on migrant mothering by including ethnographic and theoretical submissions along with mothers personal narratives and literary analyses from diverse locales New Zealand Japan Canada The United States Turkey Italy and the Netherlands among others The first section of the volume focuses on mothers roles in the family institution and the pressures and responsibilities they face in creating and reproducing families physically and socially The second section shifts its attention to children and highlights mothers continued roles in the development of their children abroad along with the gendered generational dynamics in the settlement process and the resultant effects on motherhood responsibilities In all chapters readers will find how women negotiate their traditional roles in a new sociocultural milieu and how mothering processes are critical in creating connections with traditions and homelands

Voices from a Black Miami Neighborhood Sharony Green,2025-10-10 This Palgrave Pivot is a personal and universal history of gain and loss Via memoir and oral histories Sharony Green a native of Miami with ancestral roots in the American South and the Bahamas sheds light on ups and down of African American residents before and after the Second World War The author uses the Baa Haas an outlying community in Miami Dade County a region that is also a gateway to Caribbean and Latin America as a starting place to think through such things As early as the New Deal era white powerbrokers desired to relocate people of African descent from the lucrative waterfronts to a desolate and sandy area about twenty miles northwest of Miami s downtown This community was later nicknamed the Baa Haas presumably because its nearby prehistoric beach resembled California s Bajas beaches Whether spelled Baa Haas Bajas or Bahas the tiny neighborhood whose biggest landmark nowadays is Hard Rock Stadium is noteworthy It was not until whites themselves settled there first beginning in the fifties with the help of the 1944 GI bill that people of African descent aided by the Fair Housing Act of 1968 at last moved there Some arrived from older Miami communities like Liberty City Overtown and Coconut Grove or even elsewhere in the States Essentially two federal initiatives collided with positive gains for the oppressed As people increasingly find themselves displaced owing to gentrification this book permits an opportunity for readers to see what had been possible for prospective black homeowners
