Into a Light Both Brilliant and Unseen Malin Pereira, 2010-12-01 Malin Pereira's collection of eight interviews with leading contemporary African American poets offers an in depth look at the cultural and aesthetic perspectives of the post Black Arts Movement generation This volume includes unpublished interviews Pereira conducted with Wanda Coleman Yusef Komunyakaa Thylas Moss Harryette Mullen Cornelius Eady and Elizabeth Alexander as well as conversations with Rita Dove and Cyrus Cassells previously in print Largely published since 1980 each of these poets has at least four books Their influence on new generations of poets has been wide reaching The work of this group says Pereira is a departure from the previous generation's proscriptive manifestos in favor of more inclusive voices perspectives and techniques Although these poets reject a rigid adherence to a specific black aesthetic their work just as effectively probes racism stereotyping and racial politics Unlike Amiri Baraka's claim in Home that he becomes blacker and blacker positioning race as a defining essence these poets imagine a plurality of ideas about the relationship between blackness and black poetry They question the idea of an established literary canon defining black literature For these poets Pereira says the idea of home is found both in black poetry circles and in the wider transnational community of literature A Sarah Mills Hodge Foundation Publication

Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-25 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities Hardheaded Weather Cornelius Eady, 2008 A new volume of poetic works by the Pulitzer Prize finalist and National Book Award winning author of Brutal Imagination reflects on such topics as his transition from urban renter to non plussed rural homeowner the sobering influence of war and the intimation of the writer s own mortality Simultaneous Poems To Celebrate The End Of Humanity Bal Hatase, 2021-01-01 A collection of poems ranging from the shallow surface of human instincts to the intricate depths where the feelings and emotions dwell This testament of humanity portrays the struggles of a species doomed to extinction in the eyes of an impassive observer Dozens of stories and drawings about love pain carnage metamorphosis and transcendence are presented with the intention of launching the reader to a parallel dimension where he is the last human being alive Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism GerShun Avilez, 2016-05-15 Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism explores the long overlooked links between black nationalist activism and the renaissance of artistic experimentation emerging from recent African American literature visual art and film GerShun Avilez charts a new genealogy of contemporary African American artistic production that illuminates how questions of gender and sexuality guided artistic experimentation in the Black Arts Movement from the mid 1960s to the mid 1970s As Avilez shows the artistic production of the Black Arts era provides a set of critical methodologies and paradigms rooted in the disidentification with black nationalist discourses Avilez s close readings study how this emerging subjectivity termed aesthetic radicalism critiqued nationalist rhetoric in the past It also continues to offer novel means for expressing black intimacy and embodiment via experimental works of art and innovative artistic methods A bold addition to an advancing field Radical Aesthetics and Modern Black Nationalism rewrites recent black cultural production even as it uncovers unexpected ways of locating black radicalism Poetry as Method Sandra L Faulkner, 2016-09-17 This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to using and creating poetry for conducting and reporting social research It includes examples of poetry interviews of poets and practical exercises that will enhance the discussion of poetry writing as a method When used as a teaching guide this book will encourage students to consider the importance of form and function in poetry for qualitative methods It also answers the question of how to teach the creation and evaluation of poetry it combats the perception that poetry is too difficult or mysterious to use as research and that only poets should be concerned with poetic craft The Body Eclectic

Patrice Vecchione,2002-05 An experienced anthologist and teacher has put together an immensely powerful group of poems all of which address a unifying theme of major interest to teens the body Poetic Inquiry Sandra L. Faulkner,2019-07-22 Poetic Inquiry Craft Method and Practice examines the use of poetry as a form of qualitative research representation and method used by researchers practitioners and students from across the social sciences and humanities It serves as a practical manual for using poetry in qualitative research through the presentation of varied examples of Poetic Inquiry It provides how to exercises for developing and using poetry as a qualitative research method The book begins by mapping out what doing and critiquing Poetic Inquiry entails via a discussion of the power of poetry poets and researchers goals for the use of poetry and the kinds of projects that are best suited for Poetic Inquiry It also provides descriptions of the process and craft of creating Poetic Inquiry and suggestions for how to evaluate and engage with Poetic Inquiry The book further contends with questions of method process and craft from poets and researchers perspectives It shows the implications for the aesthetic and epistemic concerns in poetry and furthers transdisciplinary dialogues between the humanities and social sciences Faulkner shows the importance of considering the form and function of Poetic Inquiry in qualitative research through discussions of poetry as research method poetry as qualitative analysis and representation and Poetic Inquiry as a powerful research tool
