Abstract—A review of the literature on the effects of the environment on the development of children's language is presented. The review is organized into three sections: (a) the effects of the physical environment, (b) the effects of the social environment, and (c) the effects of the linguistic environment. The review is based on a search of the literature from 1970 to 1990. The review is organized into three sections: (a) the effects of the physical environment, (b) the effects of the social environment, and (c) the effects of the linguistic environment.
