Estate Management and Symposium Xenophon, 2022-05-16 Xenophon was acknowledged in Antiquity as a philosopher a historian third in the triad of great Classical historians alongside Herodotus and Thucydides and a literary artist His narrative was appreciated for its literary qualities including its charm wit vigour and sweetness for which he was hailed as Attic Muse Diogenes Laertius 2 6 57 The Oeconomicus describes Socrates conversing on the topic of successful management of one s oikos household estate The focus is a well to do Athenian household which proves a testing ground for the moral qualities or gentlemanliness of the male head of household but also a space in which the role and agency of women turns out to be key Symposium shifts to the male space of the men s quarters of the private home to describe an evening of conversation and entertainment at the house of an Athenian plutocrat Far from being simply a lighthearted affair the conversation probes timeless questions regarding wisdom love and female capacity and over it looms the deadly serious matter of Socrates trial and death Both works are rich sources for Athenian social history of the Classical period Oeconomicus in particular offers insights on the role and status of women in Ancient Athens Xenophon doesn t however passively reflect the social realities he saw around him or supply snapshots of historical actuality

His Last Bow Arthur Conan Doyle,2025-01-03 There s an east wind coming such a wind as never blew on England yet Arthur Conan Doyle s His Last Bow features a selection of Sherlock Holmes stories written at a time of growing tensions in Europe First published as a collection in 1917 against the backdrop of the First World War the volume covers tales that deviate from the pattern of earlier Sherlock adventures which focus on individual culpability and the comfort of a simplistic restoration of order The titular story in this collection was influenced by Doyle s personal experience of the war and in these tales the solutions to seemingly small scale local mysteries uncover crimes concerning national security or even expose the covert evil actions of organizations and powerful dictators This edition contains a new introduction by Trish Ferguson which offers a richly detailed contextual backdrop for understanding the work as an act of war service designed to offer a morale boost to both British troops abroad and readers at home

Margaret Cavendish, 2025-06-05 I had rather die in the adventure of noble achievements than live in obscure and sluggish security One of the most diverse prolific and maverick intellectuals of her time Margaret Cavendish is known for critiquing a wide range of early modern cultural and philosophical beliefs While she was the first British woman to publish several philosophical treatises she was also profoundly interested in literature and writing in nearly every available genre indeed with her wide ranging complex and often unorthodox ideas she was a pioneer of what today would be referred to as science fiction In this edition Lisa Walters brings together well known and popular works such as The Blazing World alongside lesser known poems and prose pieces like The Ambitious Traitor and The Unnatural Tragedy The introduction discusses the wide ranging concepts that appear in the writings from gender and cross dressing to science and the nature of the universe and provides a fresh insight on Cavendish's proclivity for literary experimentation and innovation
