Angeline Montbrun French Laure Conan:

Women and Narrative Identity Mary Jean Matthews Green, 2001 A feminist re reading of the Quebec literary tradition from Laure Conan and Gabrielle Roy to contemporary figures such as France Thoret and R gine Robin Francophone Literatures Belinda Elizabeth Jack, 1996 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated France texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area The systemic and empirical approach to literature and culture as theory and application Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, Irene Sywenky, University of Alberta. Research Institute for Comparative Literature and Cross-Cultural Studies, 1997 Modern North American Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2006-04-21 Modern North American Criticism and Theory presents the reader with a comprehensive and critical introduction to the development and institutionalization of literary and cultural studies throughout the twentieth century and at the beginning of the twenty first Focusing on the growth and expansion of critical trends and methodologies with particular essays addressing key figures in their historical and cultural contexts the book offers a narrative of change transformation and the continuous quest for and affirmation of multiple cultural voices and identities From semiotics and the New Criticism to the identity politics of whiteness studies and the cultural study of masculinity this book provides an overview of literary and cultural study in North America as a history of questioning debate and exploration The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec Lisa M. Gasbarrone, 2024-10-15 Quebec s early novels are full of sacred themes and motifs devotional objects and practices parables and scripture priests and nuns transcendence divinity and eternity Yet the critical gaze of the past fifty years has seldom engaged the idea of the sacred in a sustained way Indeed the presence of the sacred has alienated modern and postmodern readers who ignore or downplay its significance leading to misguided assessments of these works as mediocre and even unreadable for contemporary audiences The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reexamines seven classic novels at the foundations of Quebec s national literature Patrice Lacombe s
