Animal Rites Liturgies Of Animal Care:

Animal Rites Andrew Linzey, 2015-06-23 Christians believe that the logos is the source of all life yet Christian worship remains unashamedly human centric The world of creation and animals in particular is almost invisible in our worship The churches do not have the liturgical means of celebrating the life of animals giving thanks for their companionship praying for the relief of their suffering or marking their death This unique book provides a variety of liturgies that are animal friendly and animal inclusive They include services in celebration of animal companionship services for animal welfare healing liturgies new eucharistic prayers for the whole creation and animal burial services Underlying all these new forms is a serious theological purpose to help us to draw deeper into the mystery of God's work in creation and to affirm other sentient beings as co creatures with us

Eastern Orthodox Christianity and Animal Suffering Christine Nellist, 2018-10-25 This book is the first academic work in Eastern Orthodox theological literature on the subject of animal suffering and human soteriology It represents a natural progression of the contemporary Eastern Orthodox academic debate on the environment and will be of interest not only to academic scholars in theology religion philosophy and ethics but also to the wider Christian and secular communities Using Biblical and Patristic teachings together with new social science research and contemporary science it presents arguments that animal suffering is against God's Will and that the abuse or misuse of animals or indifference to animal suffering will result in negative consequences for human salvation The book posits a revisionist interpretation of the Noahic narrative when addressing the challenging question of why God allows the dispensation of animals as food and offers compelling arguments on why the contemporary animal food production industries and animal testing model should be rejected
