Animals And Agency Human Animal Studies:

Animals and Agency Sarah E. McFarland, Ryan Hediger, 2009 While many scholars who write about animals deal with animal agency in some way this volume is the first to position the question of nonhuman agency as the primary focus of inquiry Section I presents studies of actual animals demonstrating agency Section II moves agency into new terrain while considering key representations of animal agency in literature Section III analyzes animals as mediators and as conveyances of human to human communication and Section IV investigates the agency of beings who defy conventional species categories The Envoi demonstrates how the microscopic polyp is interwoven into notions of agency and mythical superagency This volume's interdisciplinary explorations press hard on issues of agency to open up space for more questions about how we can understand relationships between the human and the nonhuman Shared Lives of Humans and Animals Tuomas Räsänen, Taina Syrjämaa, 2017-04-21 The book focuses on animal agency and interactions between humans and animals It explores the reciprocity of human animal relations and the capacity of animals to act and shape human societies The chapters draw on examples from the Global North to explore questions of how industrialization urbanization and human life in modernity have been a Affect, Space and Animals Jopi Nyman, Nora Schuurman, 2015-11-19 In recent years animals have entered the focus of the social and cultural sciences resulting in the emergence of the new field of human animal studies This book investigates the relationships between humans and animals paying particular attention to the role of affect space and animal subjectivity in diverse human animal encounters Written by a team of international scholars contributions explore current debates concerning animal representation performativity and relationality in various texts and practices Part I explores how animals are framed as affective through four case studies that deal with climate change human bovine relationships and human horse interaction in different contemporary and historical contexts Part II expands on the issue of relationality and locates encounters within place mapping the different spaces where human animal encounters take place Part III then examines the construction of animal subjectivity and agency to emphasize the way in which animals are conscious and sentient beings capable of experiencing feelings emotions and intentions and active agents whose actions have meaning for the animals themselves This book highlights the importance of the ways in which affect enables animal agency and subjectivity to emerge in encounters between humans and animals in different contexts leading to different configurations It contributes not only to debates concerning the role of animals in society but also to the epistemological development of the field of human animal studies Methods in Human-Animal Studies Annalisa Colombino, Heide K. Bruckner, 2023-06-07 This timely book provides a methodological guide for how to conduct and theorise research in human animal studies In response to critiques of the anthropomorphic slant to human animal research and the increasing political relevance of animals in contemporary environmental debates this book emphasises methods which bring to light the animal side of multispecies encounters Drawing from the interdisciplinary strength of human animal studies this book contains contributions from practitioners and scholars working in sociology anthropology ethology and geography Each chapter uses a case study approach to present a theoretical framework and empirical application of cutting edge methods in human animal studies from creative writing in multispecies ethnographies to visual methods like videography and body mapping Organized in three parts theorizing collaborating visualizing the book equips readers with methodological tools to conduct human animal studies research attentive to animal lives Furthermore chapters reflect on the opportunities limitations and ethical considerations of research that seeks to understand our more than human worlds The book is aimed towards undergraduate and graduate students in human animal studies and scholars investigating human animal relations It will also be of interest to practitioners and policy makers who engage with conservation wildlife management or the human animal interface of urban and regional planning

Following the Animal Ann-Sofie Lönngren, 2015-09-10 Literary transformations from human to animal have occurred in myths folklore fairy tales and narratives from all over the world since ancient times and have always provided a narrative space for depictions of power agency and the radical nature of change In Following the Animal these transformations are analysed with regards to their use in modern literature from northern most Europe with specific attention being paid to the insights they provide regarding the human animal relationship both generally in the industrialized West and against the background of more specific circumstances in the Nordic area In three analytic chapters focusing respectively on Swedish author August Strindberg's novel Tschandala 1887 Finnish author Aino Kallas's novel The Wolf's Bride 1928 and Danish author Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen's short story The Monkey 1934 along with discussions of a range of other authors and texts the reader is introduced to several traditions of literary production that both connect to and differ from Anglophone and other literature in fascinating ways In addition to the insights it provides concerning the uses of human animal transformations in modern Nordic literature and their significance in relation to the question of the animal Following the Animal also offers literary scholars and students alike a series of useable and transferable strategies for approaching texts from a more than anthropocentric human animal studies perspective In phrasing and employing the interpretational method of following the animal over the text's surface up metaphorical elevations down material wormholes and in constant dialogue with previous research this book contributes greatly to both human animal literary studies specifically and to the field of literary scholarship generally in both an international and northern European context

Human-Animal Studies: Anthropology Margo DeMello, Molly Mullin, 2010-10-01 One in the series of Human Animal Studies ebooks produced as a result of the printed publication of the definitive HAS handbook Teaching the Animal Human Animal Studies across the Disciplines This chapter focuses on anthropology includes three course syllabi and has a full resources section covering all disciplines Contains Anthropology's Animals by Molly Mullin

The Human-Animal Relationship in Pre-Modern Turkish Literature Dilek Bulut Sarikaya, 2023-01-09 In The Human Animal Relationship in Pre Modern Turkish Literature A Study of The Book of Dede Korkut and The Masnavi Book I II Dilek Bulut Sarikaya explores medieval Anatolia where humans connectivity to nonhuman animals was not yet disrupted by the capitalist economic systems and demonstrates how ancient societies treated nonhuman animals as self conscious spiritual individuals capable of feeling pain with highly advanced forms of intentionality Handbook of Historical Animal Studies Mieke Roscher, André Krebber, Brett Mizelle, 2021-06-08 The handbook provides a comprehensive evaluation of approaches topics and research areas of the rapidly developing field of Historical Animal Studies The so called animal turn specifically inspired new takes on writing history This upsurge in research has led to immense amounts of new empirical studies as well as approaches to historiography which this handbook aims to systemize Routledge Handbook of Human-Animal Studies Garry Marvin, Susan McHugh, 2014-04-16 Human animal studies is an academic field that has grown exponentially over the past decade It explores the whys hows and whats of human animal relations why animals are represented and configured in different ways in human cultures and societies around the world how they are imagined experienced and given significance what these relationships might signify about being human and what about these relationships might be improved for the sake of the individuals as well as the communities concerned The Routledge Handbook of Human Animal Studies presents a collection of original essays from artists and scholars who have established themselves internationally on the basis of specific and significant new contributions to human animal studies This international interdisciplinary handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of human animal studies sociology anthropology biology environmental studies geography cultural studies history philosophy media studies gender studies literature psychology ethology and visual studies The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies tackles the infamous animal question how can humans rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals Over the course of five sections and thirty chapters the contributors investigate issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings
