of the Massachusetts Historical Society ,1836 Documents of American Indian Diplomacy Vine Deloria, Raymond J. DeMallie,1999 Reproduced in this two volume set are hundreds of treaties and agreements made by Indian nations with among others the Continental Congress England Spain and other foreign countries the ephemeral Republic of Texas and the Confederate States railroad companies seeking rights of way across Indian land and other Indian nations Many were made with the United States but either remained unratified by Congress or were rejected by the Indians themselves after the Senate amended them unacceptably Many others are agreements made after the official but hardly de facto end of U S treaty making in 1871 With the help of chapter introductions that concisely set each type of treaty in its historical and political context these documents effectively trace the evolution of American Indian diplomacy in the United States American History through Its Greatest Speeches Jolyon P. Girard, Darryl Mace, Courtney Michelle Smith, 2016-12-05 What did America s greatest orators say regarding significant issues and concerns throughout United States history This three volume set examines hundreds of the most historically significant speeches from colonial times to the modern era allowing readers to consider exactly what the speakers said and to better understand the motivations behind each speech as well as the effect on the audiences that heard them This essential reference work presents the most important and historically significant speeches delivered since colonial times providing in essence a documentary history of the United States through these public utterances Readers can witness American history unfold firsthand through these stirring and at times controversial speeches from Patrick Henry s fiery words calling for an American revolution through the words of the 19th century abolitionists and

Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address and up through the 20th century with President Wilson's famous Fourteen Points FDR reminding Americans that the only thing they had to fear was fear itself and George W Bush responding to the attacks of September 11 For students teachers librarians and general readers this indispensable work provides essential reference resources on the speeches of great significance in American history Each speech is prefaced by a contextual headnote that provides essential background information and specific details about the speech This three volume set also includes a timeline a historical review of each era biographical sketches of each speaker and anecdotal sidebars containing additional information about the speech or speakers
