

ALL THE PRETTY HORSES

John Grady Cole is the last bewildered survivor of long generations of Texas ranchers . . .

As his grandfather dies, and his parents succumb to their own worries and desires, John is cut off from the only life he has ever wanted.

He runs off to Mexico with his friend Lacey Rawlins. Befriending a third boy on the way, they enter a country beyond their imagining: barren and beautiful, rugged yet cruelly civilized. But a place where dreams are paid for in blood . . .

In their search for a life that no longer exists, the boys' story is a classic adventure from the lost heart of the wild American West: an adventure that within months will leave one of them dead – the other two aged beyond any normal reckoning . . .

Yet throughout it all John Grady Cole will survive. The last American cowboy: steeped in the sort of wisdom that comes only from love and loss and excruciating pain.

All the Pretty Horses – the first book in The Border Trilogy – is a grand love story: a novel about childhood passing, along with innocence and a lost American age. Magnificent in the variety of its achievement, it is a living parable of responsibility and revenge and survival.
