Beyond Description Singapore Space Historicity Architect:

Beyond Description Ryan Bishop, John Phillips, Wei-Wei Yeo, 2004-08-02 This book addresses issues of space historicity architecture and textuality by focusing on Singapore's singular position in the region and as a global city. The articles consider how various experiences of Singapore both from within and from outside help to complicate existing assumptions about global urbanism, postcolonialism and architectural theory while producing challenging new ideas from a variety of disciplines concerned with how space historicity architecture and textuality inform one another.

Beyond Description Ryan Bishop, John Phillips, Wei-Wei Yeo, 2004-08-02 Treated from a range of disciplinary perspectives this book addresses and challenges issues of space historicity architecture and textuality by focusing on Singapore's singular position in the region and as a global city.

Asian Ethical Urbanism: A Radical Postmodern Perspective William Siew Wai Lim, 2005-07-15 With the impending demise of modernist planning the footprints and corpses of failed modernist visions are littered everywhere. A vacuum of implementable urban theories has occurred at the time when unprecedented expansion and restructuring of cities in rapidly developing economies are taking place. In this collection of essays William S W Lim zeroes in on the peculiarities and dynamics of present Asian urban and architectural conditions in order to challenge and transcend the socio-ecological forms and political influences generated by the current system of global capitalism. Part I of this book consists of the main essay which attempts to establish baselines for an effective formulation of ethical urbanism in Asia by clarifying issues that have previously been unquestioningly bound up with Western values and discourses. As an architect-urbanist Lim lends a determinedly spatialist and environmental perspective to issues such as rights, ethics, happiness and social justice while compelling his readers to rethink previously established notions about them. Part II of this book consists of three city studies on Hanoi, Shanghai and Singapore completed in the last two years which attempt to match Lim's theoretical formulation with actual conditions occurring in Asia today. Also included is Asian Architecture in the New Millennium a fascinating discourse on contemporary design conducted from a postmodern perspective.

The Routledge Companion on Architecture, Literature and The City Jonathan Charley, 2018-09-03 This Companion breaks new ground in our knowledge and understanding of the diverse relationships between literature, architecture and the city which together form a field of interdisciplinary research that is one of the most innovative and exciting to have emerged in recent years. Bringing together a wide variety of contributors not only writers, architectural and literary scholars and social scientists but graphic novelists and artists the book offers contemporary essays on everything from science fiction and the crime novel to poetry, comics and oral history. It is structured into two sections: History/Narrative and Genre and Strategy/Language and Form. Including over ninety illustrations the book is a must-read for academics and students.

Architecture and Urbanism in the British Empire G. A. Bremner, 2016 A comprehensive overview of the architectural and urban transformations that took place across the British Empire between the seventeenth and mid-twentieth centuries exploring the built heritage of Britain's former colonial empire.

as a fundamental part of how we negotiate our postcolonial identities Moderns Abroad Mia Fuller, 2007-01-24 This volume studies the architecture and urbanism of modern era Italian colonialism 1869 1943 as it sought to build colonies in North and East Africa and the eastern Mediterranean Mia Fuller follows not only the design of the physical architecture but also the development of colonial design theory based on the assumptions made about the colonized and also the application of modernist theory to both Italian architecture and that of its colonies Moderns Abroad is the first book to present an overview of Italian colonial architecture and city planning In chronicling Italian architects attempts to define a distinctly Italian colonial architecture that would set Italy apart from Britain and France it provides a uniquely comparative study of Italian colonialism and architecture that will be of interest to specialists in modern architecture colonial studies and Italian studies alike Indigenous Modernities Jyoti Hosagrahar, 2012-10-02 This book examines how a historic and so called traditional city quietly evolved into one that was modern in its own terms in form use and meaning Through a focused study of Delhi the author challenges prevalent assumptions in architecture and urbanism to identify an interpretation of modernism that goes beyond conventional understanding Part one reflects on transformations and discontinuities in built form and spatial culture and questions accepted notions of the static nature of what is normally referred to as traditional and non Western architecture Part two is a critical discussion of Delhi in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries redefining modernism in a way that separates the city s architecture and society from the objectified realm of the exotic whilst acknowledging non Western ideas of modernity In the final part the author considers indigenous modernities the irregular the uneven and the unexpected in what uncritical observers might call a coherent traditional society and built environment

A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang, 2016-04-28 A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture traces the origins of tropical architecture to nineteenth century British colonial architectural knowledge and practices It uncovers how systematic knowledge and practices on building and environmental technologies in the tropics were linked to military technologies medical theories and sanitary practices and were manifested in colonial building types such as military barracks hospitals and housing It also explores the various ways these colonial knowledge and practices shaped post war technological research and education in climatic design and modern tropical architecture Drawing on the interdisciplinary scholarships on postcolonial studies science studies and environmental history Jiat Hwee Chang argues that tropical architecture was inextricably entangled with the socio cultural constructions of tropical nature and the politics of colonial governance and postcolonial development in the British colonial and post colonial networks By bringing to light new historical materials through formidable research and tracing the history of tropical architecture beyond what is widely considered today as its founding moment in the mid twentieth century this important and original book revises our understanding of colonial built environment It also provides a new historical framework that significantly bears upon contemporary concerns with climatic design and sustainable architecture This book is an essential resource for understanding tropical architecture and its various contemporary manifestations Its in depth discussion and path breaking insights will be invaluable to specialists academics students and practitioners

Ethno-Architecture and the Politics of Migration Mirjana Lozanovska,2015-12-22 Ethno Architecture and the Politics of Migration explores the interface between migration and architecture Cities have been substantially affected by transnational migration but the physical manifestations of migration in architecture and its effect on streetscape neighbourhood and city have so far been understudied This contributed volume examines how migrants interact with adapt and construct new architecture Looking at the physical urban and cultural impact of these changes on a variety of sites the authors explore architecture as an identity category and investigate what buildings and places associated with migration tell us about central questions of belonging culture community and home in regions such as North America Australia and the UK An important contribution to debates on place identity and the transformation of places as a result of mobility and globalised economies in the 21st century

Building the State: Architecture, Politics, and State Formation in Postwar Central Europe Virag Molnar,2013-10-08 The built environment of former socialist countries is often deemed uniform and drab an apt reflection of a repressive regime Building the State peeks behind the grey facade to reveal a colourful struggle over competing meanings of the nation Europe modernity and the past in a divided continent Examining how social change is closely intertwined with transformations of the built environment this volume focuses on the relationship between architecture and state politics in postwar Central Europe using examples from Hungary and Germany Built around four case studies the book traces how architecture was politically mobilized in the service of social change first in socialist modernization programs and then in the postsocialist transition Building the State does not only offer a comprehensive survey of the diverse political uses of architecture in postwar Central Europe but is the first book to explore how transformations of the built environment can offer a lens into broader processes of state formation and social change
