Beyond National Borders Reflections On Japan And The World:

Beyond National Borders Ken'ichi Ōmae, Ken'ichi Ōmae, 1987 A critical appraisal that challenges the Japanese to reassess how they see themselves and their responsibilities to other countries Offers an objective analysis of the economics of international competition and shows ways to preserve jobs and free trade      Globalizing Japan Harumi Befu, Sylvie Guichard-Anguis, 2003-09-02 Globalizing Japan explores the social and cultural dimensions of Japan's global presence Japan's expansion and presence as an economic giant is witnessed on an everyday basis Both consciously and unconsciously we regularly come into contact with Japan's industrial and cultural globalization from cameras and automobiles to judo cuisine or animation Japan's presence in the popular imagination is heavily influenced both by the country's historical past and its global present This book will appeal to students and scholars of Japanese Studies Anthropology and Cultural Studies      The U.S., Japan, and Asia Frances Scott, 1993      American Power, the New World Order and the Japanese Challenge W. Nester, 1992-12-18 This book analyzes US Japan relations amidst the changing nature of power and international relations Chapters explore the relative successes and shortcomings of American liberalism and Japanese Neomercantilism the bilateral trade duels over finance high technology agriculture and other industries and the costs and benefits of foreign investment and military spending The book concludes with suggestions for a systemic and radical overhaul of American policies toward itself the global economy and Japan      After the Empires P. Preston, 2014-08-26 The shift to the modern world in East Asia was accomplished in part via the experience of colonial rule in the late nineteenth century Following imperial crisis in the 1930s and 1940s independent nation states formed from which the political structure of East Asia is based today      Liberal Internationalism and the Decline of the State P. Hammarlund, 2005-03-01 This book provides a critical analysis of the liberal ideas of the decline of the state through a historical comparison It takes special note of the implications of state failure to control economic growth and market exigencies for international relations The book is divided into three sections The first analyzes Cobden Mitrany and Ohmae's empirical claims the second looks at their normative judgements and the third looks at their predictive assertions It concludes that the three primarily propose normative arguments for less state involvement in economic and international relations but conceal them in empirical and predictive assertions The liberal idea of the decline of the state is more of an ideological statement in response to political social and economic trends than an objective observation of an empirically verifiable fact      Institutional Change Sven-Erik Sjostrand, 2016-06-16 This book brings together some 15 papers drawn from the 330 papers presented at the Third Annual Conference of the Society for the Advancement of Socio Economics in Stockholm Sweden in June 1991 Part 1 outlines a basic theory of institutional change Parts 2 and 3 examine case studies in international experience with institutional change The authors of the original papers include Douglas North Amitai Etzioni Oliver Williamson as well as eminent scholars from Eastern and Western Europe representing views and analyses from ten different countries      The United Nations library on transnational corporations : [international business and the world economy]. 7. Governments and transnational corporations

Theodore H. Moran, 1993      Anthropologica , 2002      Losing Time Otis Graham, 1994-01-04 Industrial policy reform Otis Graham argues is an important part of a public private set of remedies but it hinges upon an improved use of policy history and of historical perspective generally He proposes an explicit if minimalist approach by the federal government that would unify and reform our de facto industrial policies in order to equip the United States with the institutional capacity to formulate industrial interventions guided by strategic vision and bipartisan participation by labor and management
