Architects Notebook The Treasure House Of Idea:

Rubber Stamp Sourcebook David Ward,1995 Journal of the American Institute of Architects ,1922 Angel Dorothy Jane Brown,2017-02-23 Angel Dorothy is the inspiring biography of a formidable woman wealthy American heiress Dorothy Elmhirst who poured her considerable resources into founding Dartington Hall in 1925 What started as a progressive school rapidly transformed into a magnet for artists architects writers philosophers and musicians creating an exceptional centre for British cultural life It was at Dartington in Devon that the Labour Party s post war manifesto was written and the Arts Council was conceived Born in Washington DC into the influential Whitney family Dorothy was a national darling bells rang flags flew and the American Navy s new fast tugboat was named Dorothy Orphaned at seventeen she started giving away her inheritance at eighteen and buried herself in social and political work She maintained her status as an unmarried woman until she fell in love with and married her first husband Willard Straight in 1911 Following Willard s untimely death Dorothy worked herself into a breakdown trying to fulfil his wishes She recovered with the help of Leonard Elmhirst an Englishman who shared her liberal beliefs they married and moved to England in 1925 to start what would become Dartington Hall In this vividly told biography Jane Brown follows Dorothy from one side of the Atlantic to the other a journey Dorothy made one hundred times to spread her political beliefs her passion for education and her support of the arts for all She traces the evolution of Dartington from its restoration to its farming and forestry projects and to its time as a home for the period s greatest artists and intellectuals The Bellman ,1914 Australian Books in Print 1995 Thorpe, D. W., Staff,1995-04 This unique reference provides detailed bibliographic information on over 60 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors There are also details on over 3 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on all trade associations literary awards more Art Books ,1950 Including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs The Great Houses of London David Pearce,2001-11 The Great Houses of London is an account of extraordinary buildings most of which no longer exist of such great designers as Robert Adam and of the enormously rich English aristocratic grandees who commissioned these houses When Queen Victoria remarked to her neighbor the Duchess of Sutherland I have come from my house to your palace she was by no means exaggerating The palaces of the nobility were second only to churches in architectural and aesthetic significance and defied comparison with the chateaux of France or the palazzi of Venice Filled with astonishing French and English furniture generally equipped with a large private picture gallery to display priceless paintings bought on the Grand Tour staffed by between 50 and 60 servants these houses expressed the taste and aspiration of a single person and usually one rich and powerful enough to have his own way A distinguished designer large rooms for entertaining formally an imposing facade to impress passers by and visitors were the background for the endless balls and costume and garden parties and formal dinners that made the dazzling London Season one of the high points for European royalty and society from June through August This book the only publication on a fascinating subject covers some 40 major homes and 100 lesser ones starting in the 13th century in the walled city of London and moving on to the then suburbs of Bloomsbury Holborn Soho Piccadilly and St James finishing in Park Lane from which the aristocrats were driven by the noises of motor traffic This is a book that will fascinate architects decorators Anglophiles and social historians Midnight Rambles David J.

Goodwin, 2023-11-07 A micro biography of horror fiction's most influential author and his love-hate relationship with New York City By the end of his life and near financial ruin pulp horror writer Howard Phillips Lovecraft resigned himself to the likelihood that his writing would be forgotten Today Lovecraft stands alongside J.R.R. Tolkien as the most influential genre writer of the twentieth century His reputation as an unreformed racist and bigot however leaves readers to grapple with his legacy Midnight Rambles explores Lovecraft's time in New York City a crucial yet often overlooked chapter in his life that shaped his literary career and the inextricable racism in his work Initially New York stood as a place of liberation for Lovecraft During the brief period between 1924 and 1926 when he lived there Lovecraft joined a creative community and experimented with bohemian living in the publishing and cultural capital of the United States He also married fellow writer Sonia H. Greene a Ukrainian Jewish migrant in the fashion industry However cascading personal setbacks and his own professional ineptitude soured him on New York As Lovecraft became more frustrated his xenophobia and racism became more pronounced New York's large immigrant population and minority communities disgusted him and this mindset soon became evident in his writing Many of his stories from this era are infused with racial and ethnic stereotypes and nativist themes most notably his overtly racist short story The Horror at Red Hook set in Red Hook Brooklyn His personal letters reveal an even darker bigotry Author David J. Goodwin presents a chronological micro biography of Lovecraft's New York years emphasizing Lovecraft's exploration of the city environment the greater metropolitan region and other locales and how they molded him as a writer and as an individual Drawing from primary sources letters memoirs and published personal reflections and secondary sources biographies and scholarship Midnight Rambles develops a portrait of a talented and troubled author and offers insights into his unsettling beliefs on race ethnicity and immigration Artwork, 1929 Los Angeles Magazine, 2004-06 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award-winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian
