A Raisin In The Sun:

A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 2004-11-29 Never before in the entire history of the American theater has so much of the truth of Black people's lives been seen on the stage observed James Baldwin shortly before A Raisin in the Sun opened on Broadway in 1959 This edition presents the fully restored uncut version of Hansberry's landmark work with an introduction by Robert Nemiroff Lorraine Hansberry's award winning drama about the hopes and aspirations of a struggling working class family living on the South Side of Chicago connected profoundly with the psyche of Black America and changed American theater forever The play's title comes from a line in Langston Hughes's poem Harlem which warns that a dream deferred might dry up like a raisin in the sun The events of every passing year add resonance to A Raisin in the Sun said The New York Times It is as if history is conspiring to make the play a classic CRITICAL INSIGHTS, 2023 A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1984 The Broadway revival of A Raisin in the Sun was produced by Scott Rudin at the Ethel Barrymore Theatre on April 3 2014 The production was directed by Kenny Leon with set design by Mark Thompson Page 9

poverty in a dilapidated one bedroom apartment on Chicago's south side Walter is barely making a living as a limousine driver Though Ruth is content with their lot Walter is not and desperately wishes to become wealthy His plan is to invest in a liquor store in partnership with Willy and Bobo street smart acquaintances of Walter's At the beginning of the play Walter and Beneatha's father has recently died and Mama is waiting for a life insurance check for 10 000 Walter has a sense of entitlement to the money but Mama has religious objections to alcohol and Beneatha has to remind him it is Mama's call how to spend it Eventually Mama puts some of the money down on a new house choosing an all white neighborhood over a black one for the practical reason that it happens to be much cheaper Later she relents and gives the rest of the money to Walter to invest with the provision that he reserve 3 000 for Beneatha's education Walter passes the money on to Willy's naive sidekick Bobo who gives it to Willy who absconds with it depriving Walter and Beneatha of their dreams though not the Youngers of their new home Meanwhile Karl Lindner a white representative of the neighborhood they plan to move to makes a generous offer to buy them out He wishes to avoid neighborhood tensions over interracial population which to the three women's horror Walter prepares to accept as a solution to their financial setback Lena says that while money was something they try to work for they should never take it if it was a person's way of telling them they weren't fit to walk the same earth as them

"A Raisin in the Sun". Is working hard enough to achieve one's American Dream? Kathrin Unglaub, 2016-04-12 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 7 University of Duisburg Essen course A Survey of American Literature language English abstract This term paper deals with the play A Raisin in the Sun and how the concept of the American Dream appears in the play It will be discussed if working hard is enough to reach one's American Dream The play is written by Lorraine Hansberry and published in 1958 It takes place in the south of Chicago where the Younger family lives and consists of five people from three different generations Head of the family is Lena who is mostly called Mama right after her we got her son Walter Lee who will be presented in the main part of this term paper Besides there is Walter's wife Ruth and their son Travis The last member of the Youngers is Walter's sister Beneatha Mama embodies the first generation and is quite traditional Ruth Walter and Bennie represent the second generation whereas Travis is the only child in the third generation The family has been living in America in the fifth generation and has got African roots It can be said though that Walter Bennie Ruth and Travis are less traditional than Mama and identify with the American way of life The whole family shares a small apartment in a ghetto and living together is difficult as everybody has got his or her own desire Dream and point of view about certain topics Especially Walter Lee expects a lot from life and the reader sympathizes with him Misunderstood by his family Walter wants to live a better life and represents the concept of the American Dream of a person wanting to rise from rags to riches Walter dreams of an office job and really dislikes being a chauffeur for a white person He wants his son to go to the best schools and to get the best education as possible Furthermore he also wants to spoil his wife and get himself a nice car But why does he fail Why does nobody in his family support his idea of raising an own business namely opening a liquor store Beneatha is not even surprised about Walter s failure These questions shall be answered in the main part of this paper Moreover I quickly want to present the concept of the American Dream especially focusing on the Dream of Upward Mobility
