A Pimps Notes A Novel:

A Pimp's Notes Giorgio Faletti, 2025-06-25 From a bestselling Italian author comes a sharply observed new mystery set in the seedy underworld of 1970s Milan Giorgio Faletti's first thriller I Kill took Europe by storm selling over five million copies The Corriere della Sera Italy's leading newspaper crowned him the greatest Italian writer In 2010 with the explosive publication of A Pimp's Notes Faletti won international celebrity as a writer of world class tightly wound psychologically nuanced thrillers It's 1978 Italy has just been shocked by the kidnapping of the politician Aldo Moro by the left leaning terrorist group the Red Brigades In Milan the upper class continues to amuse itself in luxury restaurants underground clubs and cabarets This is Bravo's milieu Enigmatic and cynical Bravo makes his living catering to the tastes fantasies and fetishes of the wealthy and depraved When the mysterious Carla enters his life what begins as a clandestine romance quickly becomes a nightmare that will transform Bravo into a man wanted by the police by organized crime and even by the Red Brigades As the web around him tightens Bravo will be forced to confront the violence of the times in which he lives as well as his own connections to the political and criminal networks that control contemporary Italy Street Lit Keenan Norris, 2013-11-15 Over the last few decades the genre of urban fiction or street lit has become increasingly popular as more novels secure a place on bestseller lists that were once the domain of mainstream authors In the 1970s pioneers such as Donald Goines Iceberg Slim and Claude Brown paved the way for today's street fiction novelists poets and short story writers including Sister Souljah Kenji Jasper and Colson Whitehead In Street Lit Representing the Urban Landscape Keenan Norris has assembled a varied collection of articles essays interviews and poems that capture the spirit of urban fiction and nonfiction produced from the 1950s through the present day Providing both critical analyses and personal insights these works explore the street lit phenomenon to help readers understand how and why this once underground genre has become such a vital force in contemporary literature Interviews with literary icons David Bradley Gerald Early and Lynel Gardner are balanced with critical discussions of works by Goines Jasper Whitehead and others With an introduction by Norris that explores the roots of street lit this collection defines the genre for today's readers and provides valuable insights into a cultural force that is fast becoming as important to the American literary scene as hip hop is to music Featuring a foreword by bestselling novelist Omar Tyree Flyy Girl and comprised of works by scholars established authors and new voices Street Lit will inspire any reader who wants to understand the significance of this sometimes controversial but unquestionably popular art form Noir Affect Christopher Breu, Elizabeth A. Hatmaker, 2020-06-02 Noir Affect proposes a new understanding of noir as defined by negative affect This new understanding emphasizes that noir is first and foremost an affective disposition rather than a specific cycle of films or novels associated with a given time period or national tradition Instead the essays in Noir Affect trace noir's negativity as it manifests in different national contexts from the United States to Mexico France and Japan and in a range of different media including films novels video games and manga The forms of affect associated with noir are resolutely negative. These are narratives centered on loss, sadness, rage, shame, guilt, regret, anxiety, humiliation, resentment, resistance, and refusal. Moreover, noir often asks us to identify with those on the losing end of cultural narratives, especially the criminal, the lost, the compromised, the haunted, the unlucky, the cast aside, and the erotically perverse, including those whose greatest erotic attachment is to death. Drawing on contemporary work in affect theory while also re-orienting some of its core assumptions to address the resolutely negative affects narrated by noir, Noir Affect is invested in thinking through the material, bodily, social, and political-economic impact of the various forms noir affect takes. If much affect theory asks us to consider affect as a space of possibility and becoming, Noir Affect asks us to consider affect as also a site of repetition, dissolution, redundancy, unmaking, and decay. It also asks us to consider the way in which the affective dimensions of noir enable the staging of various forms of social antagonism, including those associated with racial, gendered, sexual, and economic inequality. Featuring an Afterword by the celebrated noir scholar Paula Rabinowitz and essays by an array of leading scholars, Noir Affect aims to fundamentally re-orient our understanding of noir. Contributors: Alexander Dunst, Sean Grattan, Peter Hitchcock, Justus Nieland, Andrew Pepper, Ignacio Sánchez Prado, Brian Rejack, Pamela Thoma, Kirin Wachter, Grene. The Pimp Giorgio Faletti, 2013-07-18. 1978. Italy has just been shocked by the kidnapping of the politician Aldo Moro by the left-leaning terrorist group the Red Brigades. In Milan, the upper class continues to amuse itself in luxury restaurants, underground clubs, and cabarets. This is Bravo's milieu. Enigmatic and cynical, Bravo makes his living catering to the tastes, fantasies, and fetishes of the wealthy and depraved. When the mysterious Carla enters his life, what begins as a clandestine romance quickly becomes a nightmare that will transform Bravo into a man wanted by the police, by organized crime, and even by the Red Brigades. As the web around him tightens, Bravo will be forced to confront the violence of the times in which he lives, as well as his own connections to the political and criminal networks that control contemporary Italy.
